VOYAGER 1 MAKES COMEBACK AS DORMANT THRUSTERS REVIVED

NASA engineers have revived thrusters aboard Voyager 1, the farthest spacecraft from Earth, just before a planned communications blackout

FEAT ACCOMPLISHED JUST IN TIME: NASA

The feat was accomplished just in time, as a scheduled maintenance period for a crucial Earth-based antenna threatened to sever communication with the probe. The revived thrusters are the original roll thrusters, which have been dormant since 2004. These thrusters allow Voyager 1's orientation in space and let it send data back to earth

REVIVAL PROCESS TOOK LOTS OF PLANNING

- Voyager 1 operates at an immense distance, beyond the heliosphere, and the team had to carefully plan and execute the revival process
- In addition to the risk, the team faced time constraint. A giant antenna in Canberra went offline on May 4. The antenna is the only one with enough signal strength to send commands to the probe

Put rogue Pakistan's nukes under IAEA watch: Rajnath

Says India brushed aside the neighbour's nuclear blackmail during Op Sindoor

Defence Minister Rajnath Singh offers sweets to an army officer in Srinagar on Thursday | PTI

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

DEFENCE Minister Rajnath Singh on Thursday demanded IAEA (International Atomic Energy Agency) supervision over Pakistan's nuclear weapons, arguing they were not safe in the hands of the rogue nation. Pointing out that India was not deterred by Pakistan's nuclear blackmail, he said Operation Sindoor sent a clear message to the terrorists in Pakistan that they no longer had a safe sanctuary.

Addressing soldiers in Srinagar, Rajnath said the world has witnessed how irresponsibly Islamabad has issued nuclear threats to New Delhi several times. "I raise this question before the world: Are nuclear weapons safe in the hands of such an irresponsible and rogue nation? Pakistan's nuclear weapons should be taken under the supervision of the IAEA," Rajnath said.

Pakistan had sought to play the nuclear card amid Operation Sindoor as media reports suggested that a meeting of their Nuclear Command Authority (NCA) — the highest decision making body on the use of nukes — would be held shortly. While it sent the international community into a tizzy, Pakistan defence minister Khawaja Asif later denied any proposal to call the meeting.

Another lie peddled on social media that Pakistan's nuclear facilities were hit during Operation Sindoor, was rebutted by the IAEA, which said there was no radiation leak. "Based on information available to the IAEA, there has been no radiation leak or release from any nuclear facility in Pakistan," the IAEA said.

Rajnath termed Op Sindoor as the biggest action ever taken by India against terror.

India rebuts Trump claim on zero tariffs

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

US President Donald Trump on Thursday said India has decided to drop all tariffs on US goods, a statement the latter immediately denied. "They [India] have offered us a deal where basically they have agreed to charge us literally no tariffs," Trump has said while responding to a question in Doha on Apple's plan to shift iPhone manufacturing to India. He told the Apple CEO not to shift manufacturing to India.

S Jaishankar

India rebutted the claims. "Between India and the US, trade talks have been going on. These are complicated negotiations. Nothing is decided till everything is. Any trade deal has to be mutually beneficial; it has to work for both countries. That would be our expectation from the trade deal. Until that is done, any judgment on it would be premature," minister of external affairs S Jaishankar said.

Meanwhile, a commerce ministry official said every country negotiates with its national interests in mind. "Negotiations must balance sensitivities and strengths on both sides. The aim is always a mutually beneficial agreement, as mentioned in the joint statement."

Apex court raps 'irresponsible' MP minister

Vijay Shah

CONTENTS OF FIR WEAK: HC

The FIR against Shah is weak, the MP high court said, adding police seem to have drawn it in such a manner as to help the minister

> We will hear it tomorrow. You know who you are. We know nothing will happen. Just because you are a minister
>
> Supreme Court bench

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday rapped Madhya Pradesh tribal affairs minister Kunwar Vijay Shah, against whom an FIR has been filed for his scurrilous remarks targeting Col Sofiya Qureshi, saying persons holding constitutional post must exercise utmost restraint.

"What kind of statement you are making? Such a person holding a constitutional office should be responsible... when this country is going through such a situation (Operation Sindoor)," said a bench led by Chief Justice Bhushan Ramkrishna Gavai.

The court's remarks came when lawyer Vibha Makhija, appearing for Shah, mentioned a petition against the Madhya Pradesh High Court's order to register an FIR against the minister for his alleged remarks.

Shah's counsel said the minister's comments were over-hyped and he was misunderstood, adding that he has already apologised for the controversial remarks.

The bench declined to grant any stay on the FIR at this stage but agreed to hear the matter on Friday.

Union set up to make NTA stop removing 'janivara'

RAGHOTTAM KOPPAR @Gadag

THIS is an old story--tradition clashes with modernity.

Probably in a first-of-its kind in the country, members from 28 communities who wear sacred thread, 'janivara', formed a union named 'Sarva Janivaradhari Okkuta' to end the practice of removing janivar, bangle, mangal sutra, etc. during competitive examinations such as NEET conducted by agencies such as National Testing Agency (NTA).

During the NEET held on May 4 this year, there were incidents in the state when the candidates were asked to remove their sacred threads by NTA.

On Thursday, the members gave a memorandum to Gadag Deputy Commissioner and demanded the use of scanners and detectors in examination halls instead of 'insulting' the candidates. 'Sarva Janivaradhari Okkuta' also held a rally in the town to create awareness about the values of janivara, mangal sutra, etc. among the people.

Leaders of various communities said the sacred thread can be removed only after death and there is a method to remove it. This should not be done during exams which will hurt our sentiments, they added.

Ganeshsingh Byali, a member of Rajput Samaj, said they would use new digital platforms to raise awareness and force NTA to course correct.

Lohit Jain, a Jain community member, said, "It is our ritual. No one should have rights to stop our religious practice."

ENCOUNTER

10 militants neutralised in Manipur

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Guwahati

TEN suspected militants were killed by the Assam Rifles in an encounter near the India-Myanmar border in Manipur's Chandel district. The Army's Eastern Command said an Assam Rifles unit under the Spear Corps (Nagaland's Dimapur-based 3 Corps) had launched an operation on May 14 acting on intelligence about the movement of militants near New Samtal village in Khengjoy Tehsil of Chandel.

"During the operation, troops were fired upon by suspected cadres, to which they retaliated in a calibrated manner. In the ensuing firefight, 10 cadres were neutralized," the Eastern Command posted on X. A cache of arms and ammunition was recovered. The Army did not disclose the name of the group.

The operation is in progress in a remote area. "We will share the inputs as soon as possible," an Army officer said. This was among the major counter-insurgency operations in Manipur since the ethnic violence between Meiteis and Kuki-Zo tribals on May 3, 2023. In the past 24 hours, security forces apprehended seven militants.

SIDDU: BBMP TO GO, IT'S GBA HENCEFORTH; THREE CORPNS LIKELY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Greater Bengaluru Governance Act will come into effect today (Thursday), said Chief Minister Siddaramaiah.

Interacting with reporters at Vidhana Soudha, he said the government will form Greater Bengaluru Authority (GBA) instead of BBMP.

Meanwhile, Leader of Opposition in the Assembly and Padmanabha Nagar MLA R Ashoka said that if BJP returns to power, it will legally challenge the GBA.

The CM said, "From now on, Bengaluru will become Greater Bengaluru. At least three corporations are likely to be formed in the Greater Bengaluru area. The chief minister will be the authority's chairperson. An appropriate decision will be taken in this regard in the coming days."

Referring to heavy rain lashing the city in the past few days, he said steps have been taken to prevent flooding and tackle any rain-related incidents.

Slamming the Congress government for formation of GBA, Ashoka accused it of turning Bengaluru from greater to 'Quarter' Bengaluru. "While Nadaprabhu Kempegowda built one Bengaluru, the Congress government is dividing it into three, hindering the city's development," he said.

Splitting Bengaluru will not help generate additional revenue. Only areas that have IT and BT hubs may help generate more revenue. "If three corporations are created, there is no guarantee that Kannadigas will become mayors," he said.

Since chief ministers are not elected from civic corporations, how can Siddaramaiah be made GBA chairman? Ashoka said.

He said BJP opposes this. If BJP comes to power, it will work towards unifying Bengaluru and fight against the Greater Bengaluru plan legally. He alleged that Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar was behind the plan for personal gains. This plan was made to postpone BBMP elections, he said.

The city's garbage issue has not been solved and clearance for the Mekedatu project is yet to be obtained.

The city's administration is collapsing. Instead of admitting these failures, the Congress government has formed GBA, Ashoka said.

Footpaths, roads, trees to be free of illegal, dangling OFCs

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BRUHAT Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Chief Commissioner Maheshwar Rao has instructed officials to immediately remove unauthorised optical fiber cables (OFCs), especially those hanging along footpaths, in the city's east zone.

After conducting an inspection from Guttahalli flyover to the Cantonment area, covering 2.5 km, on Thursday, the official pointed out that ducting systems have already been provided in TenderSure and white-topped roads across the city for laying underground cables. Despite this, certain service providers have laid cables along roads, footpaths, on electric poles and even on trees, causing inconvenience to the public. He emphasised that strict action should be taken if OFCs are laid where ducts are already available.

During the inspection, he noted that several BBMP-owned vacant plots remain unused and are unhygienic, and instructed officials to identify such areas and make them available for public use.

Expressing concern over the poor condition of spaces around roadside transformers, the commissioner directed that fencing should be installed around them and BESCOM should maintain them.

BBMP Chief Commissioner Maheshwar Rao shows how unauthorised OFCs at a property pose a risk to pedestrians, in Bengaluru on Thursday | EXPRESS

Noticing the lack of pedestrian walkways along Palace Road, 12th Main Road in Vasanthnagar and near the Cantonment railway track, he sought a detailed review to identify locations requiring new footpaths or expansions and to undertake construction accordingly.

He also instructed officials that unauthorised advertisement boards put up by private institutions and educational establishments should be removed and penalties imposed on the violators. Rao also visited the Indira Canteen on Miller's Road and checked the food quality. He found the taste satisfactory and instructed the staff to maintain both food quality and hygiene standards.

Infra work amid rain draws citizens' ire

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

WITH the onset of monsoon, both the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) and the Bengaluru Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB) have been carrying out several civic works across the city. However, residents have been voicing strong criticism of the civic bodies for undertaking such works during the pre-monsoon and monsoon periods, which they say causes significant disruptions and inconvenience to the public.

BBMP engineers, on the other hand, defend the timing, stating that the ongoing projects are part of the "annual maintenance" plan and must be completed before and during the rains to avoid further complications. At Commissariat Road, roadworks are under way with large pipes being installed. Due to heavy rainfall in the past two days, traffic on this stretch has slowed considerably, mainly because of ongoing underground drainage (UGD) works.

BWSSB Executive Engineer Nagaraj, who is overseeing a Rs 22 lakh project in the area, said, "Funds for these works are allocated after the budget is passed and some projects are prioritised. In the next 15 days, we expect to replace the existing six-inch underground drainage pipes with a larger one-foot diameter pipe."

Ravi Kumar, Executive Engineer, Mahadevapura, explained that under the Rs 2 crore annual maintenance grant per ward, several initiatives have been undertaken, including desilting drains, fixing footpaths, repairing potholes and replacing damaged drain slabs in 11 wards spread across Mahadevapura. Similarly, in KR Puram, concrete works on ward roads, particularly in Vignana Nagar and HAL wards, are in progress, along with drainage cleaning.

Executive engineer Channabasappa confirmed that Rs 1.25 crore per ward has been allocated for these works in the nine wards across KR Puram, which include filling potholes and improving road infrastructure.

The timing of these projects, particularly during the monsoon, has caught the attention of resident welfare associations (RWAs) and urban planning experts.

Senthil M, from the SMR Garden RWA in AECS Layout, said, "We approached the BWSSB executive engineer to lodge a complaint about the substandard work being done. The road has been damaged due to the installation of UGD pipes intended to assist builders near Galaxy Apartment in Doddanekundi ward. We've requested an inspection, as the road is no longer motorable," he said. Senthil also pointed out that many civic agencies tend to undertake works during the rain, leading to inefficiency and wasted funds.

Transport planner Vinobha Issac emphasised that such works during the monsoon not only pose safety risks but also exacerbate traffic congestion.

Yellow Line set for partial launch in June

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE much awaited Metro Yellow Line, stretching 9.45km between RV Road and Bommasandra, is likely to begin operations this June after multiple delays. Initially, the service will be limited, with trains stopping only at major stations along the route. Though the infrastructure has been ready for a while, the delay in launching operations was primarily due to the late arrival of new driverless train sets. While Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) is confident of launching services next month, sources said that only partial services will be provided initially.

To start with, three trains will operate at a frequency of 30 minutes. Services will be available at five main stations, besides the terminal stations at RV Road and Bommasandra. Additional stations and trains will be introduced in a phased manner.

The Yellow Line, which connects Electronics City and southern parts of Bengaluru to the broader Metro network, is expected to significantly ease the city's traffic congestion.

Earlier, BMRCL had hinted at a mid-May opening, but logistical setbacks have pushed the deadline. Now, with limited services ready for launch in June, commuters can expect gradual improvements in connectivity as more trains and stations become operational.

16TH May : Yesterday I spoke about the multiverse. Here's one piece of information I didn't give you. Some scientists believe that every time anyone of us makes a choice the universe spots that and becomes two multiverses. These then split again, when another choice is made, and so on, ad infinitum. What an amazing thought!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
The Moon is indicating that you may take some time off. Or perhaps, what it really means is that you're ready for a break in your routine. If you're planning to stay in, go out, and if you're going out you might decide to stay in! And, if a new romance has been mooted, you'll be clicking into gear towards the end of the week.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Various planets swanning around in ambitious regions of your solar chart urge you to forget about doubts, inadequacies and insecurities that have dogged your steps for too long. Concentrate now on building up your long-term reputation and see to it that people who once ignored you have good reason to respect you.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
You may have been putting your head before your heart, but right now the trend seems to be to put heart first, head second. If you're making plans at work, aim for options which make a clean break with the past, for you don't want lingering problems to drag on.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
The financial situation should be quite buoyant but, as so often happens, once you begin to feel more prosperous, you spend more and so end up out of pocket. Try to be a little more imaginative about future plans, and don't let others take you for a ride.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
All your marvellous intuitions should be telling you that now is the moment to make a bid for ultimate success. The Moon is on your side, and the worst risk you run is a spot of embarrassment. Still, it could be worse. And you'll get over it before long!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Start to wind down. Strangely enough, your chart is beginning to look decidedly more serious, not to mention more organised, efficient and jolly worthwhile. You should evade the occasional rumour or suspicion and avoid giving the impression that you've got something to hide.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Powerful social stars mean that teamwork is vital if you want to complete important tasks on schedule. This is no time to be a loner, even if you have had enough of other people's time-wasting and complaints. If partners are despondent, you may have to play the cheer-leader.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Please consider taking on more responsibilities at work, and realise that your interests will only be served if you, in turn, look after others. Don't rise to provocation, but do tackle other people at the right moment, when they are receptive to your opinions and arguments.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You are often accused of having too many irons in the fire - a typical complaint! However, from this week onwards you should consider slimming down your financial commitments, holding on only to what is necessary. Think about how you can make the space for fresh good fortune to come in.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
This is the last day in a sequence of planetary aspects which have raised the romantic temperature. This doesn't mean that you'll have no relationships left, just that your needs are moving on. Even if there is still just the merest emotional spark left, you may do your best to fan it into a flame.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
If you've been doing anything you ought not to have done, get your story ready! Your best tack for the rest of the month is to try and show people just how funny the situation is, taking their attention away from anything that may have gone wrong in recent weeks!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You should think fast, but don't be seduced into imagining that the facts are everything. You also need to do right by other people. In love and at work your goal should be to put over your ideas in as poetic a way as possible. You don't just have to tell other people what you want - you also have to get them to agree with you!

Now, FDA after imported chocolates over concerns of alcohol traces

RISHITA KHANNA @Bengaluru

FOOD Safety and Drug Administration Department (FDA) has begun collecting samples of imported chocolates from across the state in view of concerns over traces of alcohol in them.

Many of these chocolates are widely consumed, but their labels often don't warn consumers, especially children, about the alcohol content in them, a senior FDA official told TNIE.

The department is now focusing on label compliance, especially with regard to products sold without clear alcohol disclosure. The department has launched the drive after it received a directive from Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), New Delhi, as part of its National Annual Surveillance Plan (NASP).

According to the directive, all states should conduct monthly product-specific sampling drives to identify potential food safety risks, including contamination, adulteration and non-compliance with labelling standards. For May, the focus is on 'Imported Food Products' with food safety officers tasked to collect five samples of any imported food available in the domestic market. Karnataka has started this by collecting chocolate samples. The samples will be tested for quality, safety, and compliance with labelling and advertising regulations. The data collected will be uploaded to the central Food Safety Compliance System (FoSCoS) and used to initiate action against violators, the directive said. The department has collected 23 samples so far. An official said alcohol is not a mandatory ingredient in chocolates, but some foreign brands use it to enhance flavour, especially in "liqueur-filled or truffle varieties". The alcohol content in such chocolates ranges from 1 to 5% by volume. As per food safety regulations, any presence of alcohol should be mentioned on the product labels. This is because children and certain groups have been prohibited from consuming alcohol.

"Excessive or undisclosed alcohol content can pose health risks and violate labelling laws. The tests aim at ensuring that all imported chocolates meet the safety and labelling standards to protect consumers," the official said.

Naked masked thief loots phone shop, nabbed

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN a strange robbery, a man broke into a mobile shop, stark naked, and made off with at least 85 mobile phones.

The robbery took place at Hanuman Telecom Mobile Shop, opposite Seva Health Care on Hongasandra Main Road. Between 1.30am and 3am on May 9, the thief drilled a hole through a wall and crawled in, wearing only a mask. The crime was captured on CCTV from a neighbouring shop. The neighbouring shop owner, Vasan Ram, discovered the robbery while reviewing CCTV footage, and informed the mobile shop owner Dinesh, who was in Rajasthan.

Police have since arrested the thief, who is from Assam, and recovered the stolen phones.

"The mobiles are worth around Rs 25 lakh. The accused also took Rs 30,000 from the cash box. Since I was away, Vasan filed the police complaint. There is a vacant plot behind my shop. The thief used a chisel and hammer to drill the hole. It was only after reviewing CCTV footage that I realised he was completely naked," Dinesh said. And the reason for nudity? The thief didn't go naked for a lark, but because his clothes kept getting caught while trying to squeeze through the hole. "He never intended to be naked for the crime. His clothes were getting caught so he removed them and entered the shop. After exiting, he put his clothes back on and left. His movements were captured on CCTV cameras in the vicinity, leading to his arrest," said an officer.

Bommanahalli police registered a case of theft and are investigating further.

GOVT TO SHOWCASE 'K'TAKA MODEL OF DEVPT' DURING MEGA RALLY AT HOSAPETE ON MAY 20

Success of guarantees may be juxtaposed with Centre's non-coopertion for state's devpt

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

LEADER of Opposition in Lok Sabha, Rahul Gandhi, and his counterpart in Rajya Sabha, Mallikarjuna Kharge, are expected to take part in the celebrations marking the completion of the Siddaramaiah-led Congress government's two years in office at Hosapete on May 20.

The government has seized upon the ceasefire between India and Pakistan as an opportunity to go ahead with the scheduled mega rally and hit out at the Centre on development issues. Ministers have already started reviewing their respective departments and sharing data on their achievements to impress the party high command.

The government is gearing up with data on its success stories to project it as 'Karnataka model of development'. The state's progress in various fronts and success of the guarantees are likely to be juxtaposed with the Centre's non-cooperation for the state's development saga.

The CM has already said that the Centre has not released its share of Rs 4,195 crore grants against the centrally-sponsored schemes. Siddaramaiah is likely to highlight that out of 140 crore people in India, 100 crore have no discretionary money to spend by quoting the Blume Ventures report. He would also put forth the theory that only the rich get richer and the poor get poorer because of the Centre's economic policies.

On the other hand he would highlight that the two of the guarantees, Shakti, free travel for women in government-run buses' and Gruhalakshmi, Rs 2,000 for every woman head of a family per month, are bringing in revolutionary changes, as assessed by independent private agencies.

Siddaramaiah is also likely to defend himself as he has not diverted the SC/SP and TSP grants meant for the welfare of the SC/STs and point out that the Centre has diverted it to certain development works, according to sources.

Karnataka is standing first in the devolution of power in the Panchayat Raj system, Global Investors' Meet (GIM), Invest Karnataka-2025, attracting Rs 10.27 lakh crore investment commitment generating six lakh jobs would also be highlighted.

It is expected that RDPR minister Priyank Kharge and Industries minister MB Patil would get a pat for their initiatives. Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda has taken the initiative to issue title deeds to one lakh residents for their houses in hattis and tandas across the state. The same will be distributed at the May 20 rally to show that the government is with the pro-poor.

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah is slated to visit Hosapete on Friday to inspect preparation work for the Sadhana Samavesha programme, which is being organised to mark two years of the Congress government in the state.

Along with the CM, DCM DK Shiavakumar and other cabinet ministers are also expected to arrive in Hosapete. For the last one week, work on setting up of the dais is under way at the Puneeth Rajkumar District Stadium here, overseen by Vijayanagara district in-charge minister BZ Zameer Ahmad Khan. Also, the district administration is planning a slew of programmes, including the distribution of over Rs 1 lakh land ownership certificates to various communities.

"Over 2 lakh people will witness the Sadhana Samavesha in Hosapete. The last two years of the state government have been successful, where it delivered good governance. For the last one week, stage preparation is on, and I am personally inspecting the work. The CM and DCM will be arriving on Friday," Zameer told TNIE. Meanwhile, Leader of Opposition in the Lok Sabha and senior Congress Leader Rahul Gandhi and AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge are expected to address a large gathering at the samavesha on May 20.

"The district administration is ready for the event with proper arrangements, to make it comfortable for the public. Traffic management and security arrangements are also being put in place," Zameer added.

CM tells officials to verify quota for women, BCs in local bodies

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah, who is also the state's NITI Aayog chairman, instructed vice-chairman BR Patil to tour the state extensively and verify whether the quota for women and backward classes was implemented properly in rural and urban local bodies.

At the state's NITI Aayog meeting held at Vidhana Soudha on Thursday, it was decided that the vice-chairman should tour the state regularly and officers should ensure that the selection of policy and planning committees is done from time to time, and meetings are held regularly. The CM insisted that the meetings be held every three months.

"The recommendations of the taluk and district level committees should be brought to their attention and presented in pre-budget meetings," Siddaramaiah said. "People's involvement is important in decentralisation. Their opinions should be respected. Planning and development committees should convene meetings before the budget presentation and discuss their opinions."

It was announced in Budget 2023-24 that responsibility mapping would be done for Panchayat Raj institutions as per the 73rd Amendment to the Constitution. Accordingly, the Rural Development department has prepared a responsibility map for the functioning of 13 departments. Nine departments, including Health, Scheduled Tribes, Scheduled Caste Welfare, Backward Classes Welfare and Minority Welfare, Agriculture, Watershed Development, Horticulture and Sericulture, have been notified. The consent of the Women and Child Welfare, Education, Animal Husbandry and Fisheries departments is pending. The CM instructed officials to complete a responsibility map of the remaining 16 departments in the second phase, by August 15, 2025. Siddaramaiah told officials to submit a proposal to the government to conduct a re-survey of the area where the 'gram thana' boundary was fixed long ago, and to fix the area that is currently being expanded.

₹600 cr sanctioned for modernisation of Kabini irrigation canals

MYSURU: To ensure that the farmers at the tail-end get water for irrigation, the government has approved a fund of Rs 600 crore for the modernisation of Kabini and Varuna main canals. Kabini Circle Superintendent Engineer Mahesh said they are monitoring the reservoir under surveillance of the Cauvery Monitoring Authority and Cauvery Tribunal. Responding to complaints, especially from those at the tail-end of the Kabini Achukat, Mahesh said there are provisions to provide water for the irrigation of 3 lakh hectares, but they are providing water for 2.25 lakh hectares. He added that the modernisation work will be executed in the next five years, covering 103 canals and 25 feeder canals, and desilting work across 32 km of the canal in the Kabini Achukat will also be taken up. He informed that the irrigation department is desilting the main canals and farmers should desilt the feeder canals, while admitting that they have been unable to give water to 22,192 acres in the achukat.

Confusions galore: Panel may get SC census dates extended

BENGALURU: With the SC census for internal reservation receiving a lot of complaints, the Justice HN Nagamohan Das Commission is likely to get an extension.
Social Welfare Minister Dr HC Mahadevappa met top officials, including Principal Secretary P Manivannan and Commissioner Dr Rakesh Kumar K on Thursday, where a decision was taken to extend the time, so that the panel may address queries. There was suspicion over authenticity, since the enumerators were allegedly conducting census by not going thoroughly with 46 questions to the people. Meanwhile, Food and Civil Supplies Minister KH Muniyappa wrote to the panel about a large number of non-SCs registering as 'beda jangama' -- a Scheduled Caste. On May 5, CM Siddaramaiah had launched the census to cover about 25 lakh SC families. The census is scheduled for until May 17, which may get extended. The panel may make an announcement on Friday.

Tribals from Bhimgad keen to relocate: Min

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOREST, Environment and Ecology Minister Eshwar B Khandre on Thursday said tribals from Talewadi, Bhimgad Wildlife Sanctuary, in Belagavi, have agreed to come out of the forest and have opted for the voluntary tribal relocation programme.

Khandre said Rs 10 lakh will be given to each of the 27 families on May 17 in the first phase of the relocation programme. Following this, families will be given an additional Rs 5 lakh once they come out, post a thorough verification.

Under the voluntary tribal relocation programme, the state forest department offers two packages to tribals. In option one, each family is given Rs 15 lakh cash compensation and if they have adult children, each child is considered as an individual and is given additional Rs 15 lakh. In the second option, a cash compensation, along with a house and a job is given. Khandre said he had interacted with the families last December, during the winter session in Belagavi and they had expressed willingness to exit the forest fearing increasing wildlife population. The relocation exercise is being done after a thorough survey and gram sabha meeting.

He added that their acceptance to relocate is a positive step not just towards conservation, but also for the people as they will get better facilities outside the forest, including road, water, electricity and medical attention. There are many other families in other patches of the forest which will also be relocated soon, he said.

Forest department officials said there are also families residing in Krishnapura, Gawadi and Mandepur areas in Bhimgad, which need to be relocated and work on this is being done.

ARMY WON 1971 WAR, BUT INDIRA GANDHI LOST IT: BJP MP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

BJP general secretary and Rajya Sabha member Radha Mohan Das Agarwal said the credit for the 1971 war victory should be given to Field Marshal Sam Manekshaw and not to former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi.

Speaking to the media in Bengaluru on Thursday, the BJP leader said,"Our armed forces won the 1971 war, but Indira Gandhi lost it during the Simla Agreement with Pakistan in 1972. For five months, 93,000 Pakistani soldiers were treated like sons-in-law, 13,000 sq km of land was returned to Pakistan, and five crore Bangladeshis were not sent back, but India could not even bring back its soldiers who were in Pakistani custody," the BJP leader said.

"The Army won the war and Indira Gandhi lost it," he said, responding to a question on many Congress leaders recalling former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's contribution in the 1971 Indo-Pak War to question the Union Government's decision over the ceasefire.

The BJP leader also hit out at US President Donald Trump and termed his claims on mediating the India-Pakistan ceasefire as "childish".

"The BJP rejects any offer by Trump to mediate between the two countries," he said. After the ceasefire, the PM stated that Pakistan's DGMO approached his counterpart, requesting to stop the war, the BJP leader added.

"Our strategy was not to target the people of Pakistan, and we do not believe in it. From the beginning, our strategy was to punish terrorists and those supporting them, and to send out a message. We have achieved that target," he said.

The BJP leader said the PM has made it clear that it is only a ceasefire, and if there are any terror attacks, it will be treated as an act of war and responded to.

Agarwal said the Indus Water Treaty was anti-India, as it allowed Pakistan to use 90 per cent of the water. That apart, the then Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru had even given funds to Pakistan for the construction of canals, so that they could use the water, he added.

'MP MINISTER SORRY, BUT PARTY HASN'T PARDONED HIM'

ON the Congress seeking the resignation of Madhya Pradesh minister Kunwar Vijay Shah over his remarks on Col Sofiya Qureshi, BJP general secretary Radha Mohan Das Agarwal said if they have to seek resignations based on statements, everyone in Congress, except Shashi Tharoor and P Chidambaram, will have to resign. He said Vijay Shah had apologised twice, but the BJP has still not pardoned him. The BJP leader accused Chief Minister Siddaramaiah of making remarks against the country and Hindus. However, Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar does not seem to agree with the CM's stance, he added.

Minister Lad slams PM, seeks reason for agreeing for ceasefire with Pak

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA Labour Minister Santosh Lad on Thursday hit out at Prime Minister Narendra Modi asking what forced the latter to agree to a ceasefire with Pakistan.

Addressing the media in Bengaluru, Lad also questioned the PM over claims made by US President Donald Trump that he mediated the ceasefire between India and Pakistan.

"Modi should clarify whether Trump offering more trade with India resulted in the declaration of the ceasefire," Lad said. He also criticised Trump for seeing both India and Pakistan—which harbors terrorists—in the same prism.

"On what basis was the ceasefire declared? Pakistan continued to attack India even after the ceasefire. The Union Government had the support of the people of the country. There was an expectation that Pakistan would be invaded and attacked. But on what basis did you (PM) declare the ceasefire? Is everything your decision?" Lad questioned Modi, asking if the ceasefire was declared for trade as claimed by Trump.

Slamming the BJP for taking out a Tiranga Yatra, the minister said they should instead hold a "Trump Yatra".

"People know what has happened in the country for the last 20 days. Our Armed Forces have protected the country. We have been successful in attacking Pakistan. However, some questions are being raised. The PM is being portrayed as the supreme on every issue," he said.

"Why shouldn't there be a war? It should have been done. This is what the people of the country wanted. But they (Modi and Trump) declared a ceasefire overnight. For what reason did they declare the ceasefire? Prime Minister Modi should answer," Lad added. The minister alleged that the BJP uses any terror attack for its propaganda. "Was the ceasefire declared in consultation with the Armed Forces?" he said, adding that the credit for Operation Sindoor should go to the Armed Forces and not Modi or BJP.

FIR AGAINST 3 'X' USERS FOR HATE POSTS AGAINST COL SOFIYA

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

THE Belagavi police have registered an FIR against Anis Uddin, an unidentified X account holder from Canada, who shared a post on the social media platform, alleging that RSS-supported groups attacked the family of Col Sofiya Qureshi in Konnur, Gokak taluk. Two other unidentified X account holders, who shared the same post on their X handles, have been named as accused no.2 and 3 in the FIR.

Earlier, police sources told TNIE on Thursday that an FIR was filed against Madhya Pradesh minister Kunwar Vijay Shah on charges of condemning Col Qureshi at a public event. Shah had likened Col Sofiya to "terrorists' sister". However, it is unclear whether an FIR has been filed against the minister for his hate speech.

Meanwhile, the Belagavi police filed an FIR against Anis Uddin, who operates an X account with handle @uddinanis867, after his fake post began gaining traction. It may be noted that the account holder deleted the post on being warned by Belagavi SP Bheemashankar Guled, while he responded to Anis Uddin's post on X.

According to police, it remains unclear whether Anis Uddin, who shared the post on X from British Columbia, is an Indian resident. The police have sought information about him from X, in an attempt to speed up the investigation. Two other accused in the case hold X accounts under handles -- 'khubaani' and 'Drrumi'.

The suo motu case has been filed against the three accused by the CEN police station, Belagavi. The officer who is the complainant in the case, Mukkanna Dyavappa Beloor, is in charge of the Social Media Monitoring Cell of the police department.

The complaint stated that the hate post shared by the three accused was aimed at inciting communal sentiments. While narrating the contents of the post, the complaint urged the police to initiate stringent action against the accused to ensure law and order.

In their post, the three had said: "According to sources, Sofia's family home in Belagavi was attacked around 3 am by RSS extremists. Her son Sameer was brutally assaulted. The attackers searched for her daughter Hanima, who was fortunately in Delhi at the time. The Indian Army has reportedly restricted Col. Sofia's movement and her entire family has been moved to Delhi for safety, as her name is now allegedly on the RSS hit list.''

INDIA AND JAPAN GEAR UP FOR JOINT CHANDRAYAAN-5 MISSION

The fifth lunar mission will be launched by JAXA onboard its H3-24L launch vehicle

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

SENIOR space scientists from Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO), Japan Aerospace Exploration Agency (JAXA) and Mitsubishi Heavy Industries (MHI) have conducted a two-day technical interface meeting on the joint Indo-Japanese Chandrayaan-5/Lunar Polar Exploration (LUPEX)) mission.

The mission, the date for which is yet to be decided, will be the fifth mission in the Chandrayaan series of lunar missions, in collaboration with JAXA, to study the lunar volatile materials, including lunar water, in the vicinity of a Permanently Shadowed Region (PSR) at the lunar South pole. Chandrayaa-5 will follow Chandrayaan-4, which ISRO is looking to launch sometime in 2027 to be India's first lunar sample return mission.

Chandrayaan-5 will be launched by JAXA onboard its H3-24L launch vehicle, carrying the ISRO-made lunar lander. ISRO's lunar lander will be carrying the lunar rover made by Japan's Mitsubishi Heavy Industries (MHI). ISRO will also be responsible for developing a few scientific instruments for the mission, details of which are yet to be confirmed. The scientific instruments for this mission would be contributed by ISRO, JAXA, European Space Agency and NASA, all thematically connected with the exploration and on-site analyses of volatiles reserved in the lunar polar region.

The two-day face-to-face meeting, which was held over May 13 and 14 at ISRO Headquarters in Bengaluru, deliberated on various technical interfaces, joint mission implementation plan, as well as potential landing sites for the Chandrayaan-5 lunar mission. Dr Tirtha Pratim Das, Director, Science Programme Office, ISRO Headquarters, spoke on the landing site selection, payload optimisation, mission design and ground segment and communication. G Ravi Chandra Babu, study team leader of Chandrayaan-5/LUPEX, emphasised on the need for the clear definition of the milestones, timeline and deliverables of the project.

Dai-Asoh, Project Manager, LUPEX Project Team, JAXA, briefed the meeting about technical progress made towards the development of the rover and the interfaces related. M Ganesh Pillai, Scientific Secretary, ISRO, emphasized the importance of the collaborative endeavour for the scientific and technical aspects of the mission.

The Chandrayaan-5/LUPEX mission, approved by the Centre on March 10, 2025, will be one of the major short-term milestones in India's lunar exploration odyssey, which envisions Indian Gaganyatris (astronauts) landing on the Moon by 2040.

ISRO's all-weather satellite launch planned for Sunday

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

ISRO is set for its 101st satellite launch this Sunday with one of its heavy satellites, Polar Satellite Launch Vehicle (PSLV) C61, also known as Earth Observatory Satellite (EOC)-09. ISRO Chairman V Narayanan told TNIE that the launch is slated for May 18. This is one of the heaviest satellites developed by the team, and weighs around 1700kg. It will be launched from Sriharikota around 6 am. All the payloads were moved from the integration facility to the mobile service towers on Thursday for integration, ahead of the launch.

Narayanan said the all-weather satellite will closely observe the Earth exclusively for Indian applications, and will capture high resolution images. The launch is also a milestone for the Indian space sector during the Indo-Pak conflict, with around 10 Indian satellites closely watching and helping the Indian defence sector. It marks the growth of the country in the space arena as it will help in national security and crucial infrastructure, said a senior ISRO official. The official added that this satellite will have an upgraded C-Band synthetic aperture for better resolution images. The low orbit satellite is the XL-version rocket and is also termed as the big brother of the earlier launched all-weather satellites -- Risat-1A (Indian radar imaging satellites) launched in 2022 for information on agriculture, forestry, soil moisture, flood mitigation information; and Risat-1B, launched in 2025 for surveillance of Indian borders.

HC allows probe against Sonu Nigam, restrains cops from filing final report

YATHIRAJU @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday permitted the Bengaluru police to investigate the case registered against singer Sonu Nigam for his alleged statement linking a request for a Kannada song at a concert with the Pahalgam terror attack that claimed 26 lives.

The HC also allowed the singer to appear through video conferencing to record his statement, if required, or if the investigation officer (IO) wants to record his statement physically, the singer should bear the IO's expenses. The court, however, restrained the city police from filing a final report till the next date of hearing.

Recording the undertaking given by the State Government that they will not take any coercive steps against Nigam if he cooperates with probe, a vacation bench of Justice Shivashankar Amarannavar passed the interim order after hearing the petition filed by the singer questioning the legality of the case file by one Dharma Raj Ananthaiah with the Avalahalli police on May 2.

Nigam's counsel argued that the complaint was filed only for publicity, and the allegations made do not attract the offences alleged against the petitioner. The judge then asked him whether the complainant was on the spot when the incident happened. Additional State Public Prosecutor BN Jagadeesha submitted that the event was live on social media, widely reported and videos of the alleged statement were circulated.

Jagadeesha said that initially Nigam defended his statement, but after the Karnataka Film Chamber of Commerce took a decision to ban him, he apologised. The police have issued a notice to him through e-mail and by post on May 5, and they have to record his statement. But he did not respond and did not cooperate with the probe, and did not even whisper the same in his petition challenging the crime, he said.

"Let him cooperate... This kind of person, who does not respect the law, does not benefit from the petition filed under Section 482 of CrPc for quashing the crime. Let him cooperate with the probe, we will not take coercive action," he told the court.

Meanwhile, Nigam's counsel requested the court to exempt him from personal appearance considering that he is a celebrity, which may lead to unnecessary issues, but Jagadeesha strongly objected to it saying that it is the responsibility of the state to protect him since they have to conduct spot mahazar.

Restore forest or be ready to send officials to prison: SC to TG

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@New Delhi

WARNING the Telangana government of stern action if no decision is taken on the restoration of Kancha Gachibowli forest, the Supreme Court on Thursday said felling of trees next to the University of Hyderabad prima facie appeared to be "pre-planned".

"The Telangana government has to restore the forest or its officials could land in jail," said a two-judge bench of Chief Justice BR Gavai and Justice Augustine George Masih.

While taking suo motu cognisance of the felling of trees at the forest area in Kancha Gachibowli, the bench had stayed felling of flora at the site and warned the state chief secretary of consequences if its order was not complied with.

The bench questioned why trees were felled taking advantage of a long weekend when the courts were not available.

On Thursday, senior advocate Abhishek Singhvi, appearing for the Telangana government, said there was no activity being carried out at the site and assured compliance with the top court's directives in "letter and spirit".

Senior advocate K Parameshwar, assisting the top court as an amicus curiae, said the Forest Survey of India gave a report to the Central Empowered Committee after using satellite imagery indicating 60 per cent of the total 104 acre area, where trees were felled, was moderately dense and heavily dense forest.

"If you want to be saved from contempt, better take a decision to restore the forest," the bench told the state's counsel.

The bench went on, "We are putting you on guard. If you try to defend such a thing, the chief secretary and all those officers involved will be in trouble."

It added, "You should not have indulged in this. Taking advantage of a long weekend, you do all this."

Referring to the photographs, the bench said the authorities had managed to arrange dozens of bulldozers to fell the trees. For felling trees, the bench observed, the state was required to take requisite permission. "If you had bona fides, then why did you not start it on a Monday? Why only start it at the beginning of a long weekend?" the bench asked.

Singhvi, who said the state has filed a counter affidavit in the court, argued he would deal with these aspects during his arguments in the matter.

The bench observed it was the state's choice whether it wanted its chief secretary and half-a-dozen officers to be shifted to a temporary prison to be constructed at the site.

"It is up to the state whether it wants to restore the forest or not. The entire issue was that the benefit of a long weekend was taken and thousands of trees were felled. Anyway, the state has to decide whether it restores the forest or officers would be sent to jail," the CJI said, and posted the matter for July 23 for further hearing.

K'taka mulls putting a cap on CSE seats intake to tackle unemployment

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

DID you know that in 2024-25, nearly 45,000 students in Karnataka enrolled for an undergraduate degree in Computer Science Engineering (CSE) and allied disciplines? And the demand is still growing in the AI era.

Now in a move to prevent oversupply of CSE graduates and address growing concerns over unemployment, the state Higher Education department is considering freezing the increase of Computer Science Engineering (CSE) seats in engineering colleges in Tier-1 cities.

The proposal draws inspiration from Telangana, where a similar restriction has already been implemented and upheld by the state's High Court.

Higher Education Minister MC Sudhakar said that indiscriminate increase in CSE seats, often by converting less in-demand seats in civil and mechanical engineering, has created an imbalance in the system. If the trend continues, the state will have lakhs of graduates from CS and related disciplines and eventually the industry will face a crisis, where most of them could be left unemployed, the minister warned.

Pointing to Telangana High Court's recent decision as a precedent, the minister mentioned that the court had dismissed multiple writ petitions filed by private engineering colleges that challenged the state's rejection of proposals to increase CS intake for the 2024-25 academic year.

The Telangana HC ruled in favour of the state's authority to regulate engineering education.

In Karnataka, there are currently 1,32,309 engineering seats across 245 colleges for the 2024-25 academic year.

The spike in CSE seats is largely due to relaxed norms by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), which removed the cap on engineering admissions and allowed colleges to increase seats based on demand.

This has led to some private colleges, especially in Tier-1 cities, expanding their CSE intake to as many as 1,500 to 2,000 seats often bypassing state government seats limits by obtaining approval directly from AICTE. These expansions sometimes exceed the infrastructure capacity prescribed by the state.

The number of Common Entrance Test (CET) seats in CSE and related courses has also seen a sharp rise — from around 24,000 in 2021–22 to nearly 39,500 last year. In total, there were 79,907 CET seats across all engineering streams in the previous academic year.

The seat matrix for 2025–26 is yet to be announced.

Road rage: 2 CISF personnel held for man's murder in Kochi

ABDUL NAZER MA @Ernakulam

An incident of road rage ended in the death of a 24-year-old man, Ivin Jijo, at the hands of two Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) personnel near Nedumbassery on Wednesday.

The CISF personnel involved — sub-inspector Vinayakumar and constable Mohan Kumar, both attached to the Kochi airport — have been arrested by the police on charges of murder. The horrific incident occurred around 11 pm when Ivin, a native of Thuravoor near Angamaly and a chef CAFS airline caterers in Nedumbassery, was reportedly hit by the car driven by the CISF personnel and dragged nearly 1km while he was on the vehicle's bonnet. After Ivin fell off the bonnet, he was dragged for almost another 50 metres.

According to police probe, the incident began with a minor road altercation between the two parties in Nayathode, around 8 km from the Kochi airport. The CISF personnel's vehicle, which was driven by Mohan, was behind Ivin's car and reportedly honked aggressively to overtake. A minor collision ensued while they overtook Ivin. This led to an argument. Eyewitnesses said after the initial altercation, Ivin tried to confront the duo again. He began recording on his phone. Standing in front of their car, he sought an explanation. Witnesses claim, the officers accelerated the car, causing Ivin to fall on its bonnet and drove off.

Stalin flays Centre for seeking SC opinion on deadline for Governor

CHENNAI: TN CM M K Stalin on Thursday condemned the Centre for using Presidential reference route to seek the Supreme Court's opinion on deadlines fixed by the court for governors and President to decide on bills. The move revealed the Centre's "sinister intent," Stalin said. President Droupadi Murmu has posed 14 questions to the SC under Article 143(1) including one on exercise of plenary power by the SC under Article 142 to make the bill re-presented to TN governor as deemed to have been passed. Stalin said the Centre's Presidential reference to the SC attempts to subvert the constitutional position already settled by the top court in its April 8 verdict in the TN governor's case and other precedents set by the court.

Mansas left out of SC survey, demand recognition

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WHILE the SC community survey is going on, the Mansa community, a little-known and numerically insignificant group, has alleged that their sub-caste has been left out of the survey.

As surveyors cover Karnataka, categorizing Scheduled Castes and collecting data, the mostly Tulu-speaking Mansa community — spread across the districts of Dakshina Kannada, Shivamogga, Hassan, Chikkamagaluru and Kodagu — claims its identity was erased from the list.

10%
ST
SC
15%
DALIT

"Five lakh voices are being silenced," says Achuta, a prominent voice of the community. "Our people identify as Adi Dravida or Adi Karnataka."

The omission has sparked outrage, particularly since the Kantharaj Commission had previously acknowledged the Mansa caste. However, the latest enumeration by the Nagamohan Das Commission appears to have dropped it.

Asked whether Mansa falls under the 'Left' or 'Right' classification of SCs, Achuta said the caste is neutral, which is why it has been excluded. Some numerically significant SC communities from the Left and Right have invited them to join their groupings.

For over three decades, the Mansa community has fought for recognition, and fears they will lose whatever ground they have gained.

Former Backward Classes Commission chairman CS Dwarakanath said, "This is a serious lapse. The enumeration process must be revised immediately to include them. I suggest that other numerically insignificant communities among the SCs should also be accommodated."

Gali Janardhana's petition for special facilities in jail dismissed

HYDERABAD: The CBI Special Court on Thursday dismissed a petition filed by BJP leader Gali Janardhana Reddy seeking special facilities in prison following his conviction in the high-profile Obulapuram Mining Company (OMC) illegal mining case. In its order, the court made it clear that it does not have the authority to direct prison author-ities to extend special privileges to convicts, partic-ularly in cases involving serious irregularities. The court said individuals convicted of offenses such as illegal mining are not entitled to facilities under the "special category." On May 6, the CBI court had sentenced Reddy and three others to seven years in prison after finding them guilty in the OMC illegal mining case. Following the conviction, they were shifted to Chanchalguda Central Prison.

US-CHINA ROLLBACK IS WELCOME, BUT TRADE CHAOS FAR FROM OVER

IN an unexpected turnaround that has pulled the US from the brink of recession, the Trump administration and China have agreed to pause their mutually devastating tariffs. The US will now reduce import duty on Chinese goods from the absurdly high 145 percent to 30 percent, while China will scale down on US goods from 125 percent to 10 percent. The declaration of the world's two largest economies that they "are in agreement that neither side wants to decouple" has come as a shot in the arm to weakening economies round the world. Retail prices in the US had already begun to creep up as Chinese ships stopped berthing at American ports. Manufacturers scrambled and supply chains began to teeter. In China, factory output slowed as firms laid off workers after US orders began drying up.

As investors cheered, equity markets rebounded. As trade between the two giant economies begins to flow again, there will be a multiplier effect on other economies, too. However, those countries that did not retaliate with reciprocal tariffs have been left with a raw deal. For instance, Vietnam and Thailand, which had accepted tariffs at 46 and 36 percent, respectively, could now see manufacturers targeting the US markets, move to China where tariffs are down to 30 percent.

However, the world is not yet free of jitters since there is no final settlement, and the pause is only for 90 days. In all the Trump-induced chaos, it is China that has emerged as a far more reliable trading partner. For India, which currently faces a baseline 10 percent tariff on exports to the US, the scaling down of hostilities between the US and China is, in a way, a setback. China getting priced out of the US market was a huge opportunity for Indian exporters; but for now, that edge has vanished. Trump's move to slash pharmaceutical prices in the US will also hit Indian exporters who supply about 40 percent of the US's generic drug needs. At a broader lever, this puts a question mark on the China+1 formula—the business strategy of multinationals shifting to alternative hubs in Mexico, Vietnam or India, to cushion against the volatile tariff regime China faces. The tumult in global trade is far from over, and India would do well to clinch a deal with the US at the earliest.

PROTECT WILD HABITATS WHILE BOOSTING TOURISM

A proposed hotel project in the vicinity of Odisha's Similipal Tiger Reserve (STR), among the first notified tiger habitats of the country, has raised concern over its location. Green activists flagged the issue citing its proximity, barely 700 metres, from the reserve's boundary. Though it's a designated national park, the STR has not yet been notified as an ecologically-sensitive zone (ESZ). It's the only habitat in the state to have a stable tiger population and so needs robust protection. The ESZ classification is critical because it marks protected areas where some activities are prohibited or regulated, depending on the region's fragility. In many ESZs, new commercial projects are barred within a kilometre of the protected areas. Not in every case, though. A draft ESZ for Satkosia, Odisha's second tiger reserve, saw the government propose something drastically different—permission for new commercial hotels within 1 km of its boundary. With the state government trying to push the tourism sector, there is a rush for private hotel and resort projects. In its last single-window clearance meeting, it approved six such projects worth over ₹400 crore. Many of these are being planned around prime wildlife habitats.

Odisha was among the few states that recorded a marginal increase in forest cover in the latest nationwide survey. A little above 5 percent of the state's geographical area is marked as protected. These biodiverse hotspots provide immense ecological services to the state and must be preserved at all costs. Building tourism infrastructure is a laudable move to bring in revenues and employment, but those planned near national parks and sanctuaries would sustain only if the wildlife is allowed to thrive and the carrying capacity of the protected area is maintained. The state might feel it has missed the bus so far as wildlife tourism—tiger-spotting, in particular—is concerned, the benefits of which have long been reaped by other states. But it must not be lost on the government that tiger reserves are governed by stringent laws and require stronger conservation efforts. While tourism projects are welcome, critical wildlife habitats must be spared, which is why the ESZs should institute the required safeguards. Odisha must see to it that its protected areas are not compromised for short-term benefits.

QUICK TAKE

TOP PRIORITY IS UNITY

WHEN someone conflates Pakistan-supported terrorists with Indian Muslims, they play into the terrorists' gameplan of deepening India's communal faultlines. And when they relate terrorists with members of our armed forces, they threaten the nation's unity and security. It's in this light that Madhya Pradesh's senior minister Kunwar Vijay Shah's comments on Colonel Sofiya Qureshi, who has been articulating details of Operation Sindoor, should be seen. Calling his comments "gutter language", the Madhya Pradesh High Court directed the police to file an FIR against the eighth-term BJP legislator; even the Chief Justice of India upbraided Shah. The state government and the BJP must take exemplary action against the politician to deter others from such dangerous comments.

Caste identity is often fluid, making reliable data collection difficult. Add to it the lobbying by communities for favourable classification, and it becomes nearly impossible to paint the correct picture

CASTE CENSUS: WILL IT CLEAR AIR OR MUDDY WATERS?

SUGATA SRINIVASARAJU

Senior journalist and author of Strange Burdens: The Politics and Predicaments of Rahul Gandhi

SOURAV ROY

NOT long ago, the Union government announced it would conduct a caste census along with the regular census. However, it has not told us explicitly as to why it plans to conduct the caste census after opposing it for a prolonged period. Since social justice is the idea associated with it, one has to assume this decision serves that singular end, notwithstanding that the phrase 'social justice' is a much-trampled term in Indian politics. It can mean a whole set of things without actually meaning anything for the truly oppressed.

Of course, the timing of the government's decision has been attributed to political expediency–the Bihar assembly polls. But beyond Bihar, it speaks to a certain vulnerability and inevitable accommodation of a coalition set up. It also allows for other Mandal and Dravidian parties and their electorates to look at the BJP more favorably in the near future. In a sense, it could cause power realignments where necessary.

More than snatching away an obsessive plank from the Congress, caste census could be the BJP's move to strategically delink Mandal parties from the former. It may want to smash the idea of the caste-narrative as a binary opposite of the religion-narrative that it commands. With this move, the BJP comes across as an all-encompassing behemoth. No narrative is outside its purview anymore. The Congress on the other hand looks like it has shrunk its worldview, and surrendered its pan-national appeal. All this said, one has to still confront the toughest and the most basic question about the caste census. It may offer abundant data, but how does one really enumerate caste in present-day India? How does one verify that data, and how does one interpret it when uncertainties exist about its very accuracy?

Caste is such a thing that gives a feeling of certainty as long as you do not have to pin it down under one category or the other. The moment one is asked to be specific about one's caste, the confusion begins right from the name; its alignment to the varna categories, and the googlies that specificities of a sub-caste would hurl. Now is not the age of caste anyway, it is the age of sub-caste. After these many decades of reservations, the competition is between sub-castes. The conflict is more between sub-castes—one dominated by another, placed in the same quota category.

When it comes to caste or sub-caste, one identifies oneself in relative terms, to an immediate social setting as well as a certain aspirational or political setting, never to what one really is. There is a fluidity to caste/sub-caste identity that we hardly recognise, but that can make a mockery of the caste census. Social science in India has predominantly borrowed a western model, which has never attempted a model to enumerate caste. That could also be due to an upper caste or leftist bias in academia.

The general census works on a verifiable binary reasoning or response model to determine socio-economic distress or flourish. Questions like, do you own a house, do you have a degree, do you live in a joint family etc., elicit a definite 'yes' or 'no' response, but caste cannot be enumerated with such definitiveness because it carries ifs and buts in its belly.

In the last caste census that was conducted in 1931, J H Hutton, the census commissioner wrote that "the term 'caste' needs no definition in India." He meant it in the sense that it was omnipresent, but it could also mean it cannot be defined conclusively because there are too many variables at play. Hutton honestly stated in his report the complications that were involved in enumerating caste, and those complications have acquired greater complexity today.

For instance, Hutton wrote: "There is… a tendency towards the consolidation of groups at present separated by caste rules. The best instance of such a tendency to consolidate a number of castes into one group is to be found in the grazier castes which at combining under the terms Yadava, Ahirs, Goalas, Gopis, Idaiyans and perhaps some other castes of milkmen." He also spoke about "the desire of the artisan castes in many parts of India to appear under a common name." He added that in "some cases a caste which had applied in one province to be called Brahman asked in another to be called Rajput," and there were "several instances at this census of castes claiming to be Brahman who claimed to be Rajput 10 years ago."

In summation, Hutton wrote: "It is obviously impossible for the census authorities to do anything other than accept the nomenclature of the individuals making the return, since to discriminate and to allot to different groups would involve entering into discussion on largely hypothetical data. Experience at this census has shown very clearly the difficulty of getting a correct return of caste and likewise the difficulty of interpreting it for census purposes."

One has to only come to Karnataka, as the Dalit census for internal reservation is underway (ending May 17), to realise how these complexities are playing in the present day. Caste lobbies and organisations are issuing advertisements and holding conventions to request their respective caste brethren to identify themselves before enumerators under specific names. The consolidation of numbers under a certain name would eventually lead to higher quota and greater political representation, they argue.

If one advertisement instructed people not to list themselves as Adi Karnataka or Adi Dravida or Adi Andhra but call themselves Madiga, another appealed to consolidate under the name Bhovi Vaddar. This is not different from the enterprise that Hutton recorded in 1931. People culturally think of themselves as one thing but politics dictates another name.

Any caste data collected is likely to lead to an irresolvable disputation, as the recently leaked caste numbers in Karnataka have proved. Castes, sub-castes want the perception of themselves and their size, historical or otherwise, to be reflected in the data, and that is terribly tough. This makes all data "hypothetical", as Hutton said. Caste data is collected in the privacy of homes, not in town halls where caste claims can be contested by competing communities. Such town halls cannot exist, and also migration has hugely upset the geo-specificity and nomenclature of castes. Traditional caste-based professions too have largely dissolved. The BJP perhaps realises the eventual outcome of a caste census–small concessions but more confusion. (Views are personal)

HOW THEY SHRUNK THE DRONES

KAJAL BASU

Veteran journalist

REAMS have been written about the strategies in the recent India-Pakistan border conflict. But fewer words have been expended on a core aspect of this war: drones—their use; their different deployments by the two countries; the cost to each country centred on the kinds of drones used; and, most importantly, how the war drones in this conflict fit into various streams of global developments in warfare.

The credit for 'the first drone war' goes to the ongoing Russo-Ukrainian conflict. The India-Pakistan faceoff was just another bead in a long chain that began 176 years ago, when pilotless hot-air balloons bombed Venice during the 1848-49 Italian revolution. It took 68 years to progress from the wind to radio-control—an 'aerial torpedo' against zeppelins and submarines designed by Archibald Low, the 'father of aerial guidance systems'. In 1935, the de Havilland DH.82 Queen Bee made its debut—a yellow-and-black liveried, radio-controlled biplane that not only became a testbed for future designs but also fathered the appellation 'drone'.

During the Second World War, the US Navy converted four-engined B-24 Liberator bombers to radio-control for bombing missions. During the Cold War, the US used AQM-34 Firebee for photography missions over China and Vietnam, with China shooting down one in 1964. Iraq first used its ubiquitous Mohajer-1 for battlefield surveillance in 1986, explosively multiplying the use of drones in West Asia.

But these were large and spottable, and therefore more stoppable. Today, drones come in all shapes and sizes, from palm-width playthings to quadcopters and hexacopters that can be assembled by non-state actors—such as guerrillas in Myanmar and insurgents in Syria. In Myanmar, the Karenni Nationalities Defence Force uses drones made with 3D printers and mechanics stripped from Chinese pesticide-sprayers. In Syria, the Hayat Tahrir al-Sham (HTS), now in power, began producing winged drones in 2019. In Gaza, Hamas used hobbyists' first-person-view (FPV) drones to scope out Israeli border posts.

Drone development is now official across the conflict ecosystem, from militaries to militias. The HTS's Al-Shaheen (Falcon) Brigade, which reports directly to now-president Ahmed Hussein al-Sharaa, specialises in the "production, manufacturing and development of advanced drones and weapons". In February 2024, the Ukraine government established the Unmanned Systems Forces, the world's first branch of a military dedicated to drone warfare.

The research focus is now on repurposable drones, small drones, drone swarms, and the cost benefit. Ukraine's sub-$400, explosive-packed FPV quadcopters inspired by racing drones square off against Russia's Iranian-made $20,000-100,000 Geran-2 drones (essentially, Shahed-136/131s). Ukraine can afford to toss buckets of them at Russia, as it did in May 2025, using 524 drones to disrupt 350 commercial flights across Russia; Russia has thrown 10,000 Shaheds at Ukraine since 2022. So Ukraine can afford to lose an estimated 50-80 percent of its deployed drones; but Russia is financially crimped by a 50 percent loss. Drones are now all about the money.

AFP

Before India-Pakistan, the Russia-Ukraine conflict saw the world's first drone warfare. In recent years, the focus has shifted to building smaller, disposable and cheaper models. Militaries and militias alike are interested in deploying them

In the recent India-Pakistan duel, Pakistan lobbed 300-400 low-cost drones at India like confetti, testing India's defences and perimeters. India says it intercepted 90 percent of them, while Pakistan claims it shot down 25-77 Indian drones. The wild figures suggest that, in typical war scenarios, drone launches and casualties are difficult to estimate for now. But this much is true: Pakistan's Turkish-made Asisguard Songar and NESCOM Burraq drones, the latter based on the Chinese CH-3A, are far less expensive than India's IAI Harop and Heron Mark-2.

Pakistani quadcopters were used in small swarms. India used targeted and loitering drones that were not in packs. The countries had different intentions, and their drones had differing utility. As everywhere, the competition is as much between rival entities as it is between two arms of a single technology.

And there is more mayhem waiting on the wings: sea drones, amphibious drones, mesh networks of low-tech kamikaze drones, high-speed return-to-base bomber drones, those targeting body heat, autonomous facial-recognition ones and AI-enabled interceptors.

The global drone arms race is fundamentally between China and the US. The US, as ever, is pursuing monumentalism: large drones such as the Boeing MQ-25 Stingray and the MQ-9 Reaper. China's focus is on aircraft carrier-based drones, 'mothership' drones—or swarm-carriers such as the Jetank with a 6-tonne payload capacity for missiles, bombs and 'isomerism hive modules' of hundreds of drones for swarm reconnaissance and strike—and drones that can split into smaller autonomous units. The pace of development is frenetic. China demonstrated in Shenzhen a balletic swarm of 10,197 light-show drones on September 26, 2024, up from 7,998 on September 4, and 8,100 a day later. A dark horse, Vietnam, broke this record with 10,518 coordinated drones on April 28, 2025.

These drone swarms are one step from weaponisation—maybe not even that far, because China's drone weaponisation programme is enmeshed with civilian drones, what with the Shenzhen DJI Sciences and Technologies owning 70 percent of the global civilian drone market share. The record-breaking Shenzhen drone swarm was controlled by a single laptop, which the US's Autonomous Multi-Domain Adaptive Swarms-of-Swarms (AMASS) project is not even close to replicating.

At the end of the day, drone development is backed by the human desire to wage war but not to be caught in its midst. To destroy with unbloodied hands. The days of warriors with the PlayStation mentality are upon us. (Views are personal)

Kashmir a bilateral issue: EAM

Jaishankar's comments come after Trump's claim that his admin had mediated ceasefire

JAYANTH JACOB @ New Delhi

S Jaishankar during the inauguration of the Embassy of Honduras in New Delhi

EXTERNAL Affairs Minister S Jaishankar reiterated on Thursday that India's relations with Pakistan would remain strictly bilateral. His remarks came after US President Donald Trump claimed his administration had mediated a ceasefire between the two countries and offered to help resolve the Kashmir issue.

"Our relations and dealings with Pakistan will be strictly bilateral. That is a national consensus for years, and there is absolutely no change in that," Jaishankar said. The minister's remarks followed Trump's claim that his administration had mediated the ceasefire, along with his offer to intervene in resolving the long-standing Kashmir dispute between the two nations.

While Pakistan welcomed Trump's mediation offer, India firmly rejected it. India maintains that all outstanding issues with Pakistan must be resolved bilaterally.

On Truth Social, Trump wrote: "I am going to increase trade substantially with both of these great Nations. I will work with you both to see if, after a 'thousand years,' a solution can be arrived at concerning Kashmir. God Bless the leadership of India and Pakistan on a job well done."

Speaking on the sidelines of an event inaugurating the new embassy of Honduras, Jaishankar said India is willing to hold talks with Pakistan only on the issue of terror and Pakistan occupied Kashmir (PoK) and the Indus Waters Treaty will remain in abeyance until cross-border terrorism by Pakistan is "irrevocably stopped."

"The only thing which remains to be discussed on Kashmir is the vacation of illegally occupied Indian territory in Pakistan-occupied Kashmir... The government's position is very, very clear," he said.

"I think the Prime Minister made it very clear that the only talks with Pakistan will be on terror, that Pakistan has a list of terrorists who need to be handed over, they have to shut down the terrorist infrastructure," he said.

"They know what to do. We are prepared to discuss with them what is to be done about terrorism. Those are the talks which are feasible." He stated that the Indus Waters Treaty of 1960 "will continue to be held in abeyance until cross-border terrorism by Pakistan is credibly and irrevocably stopped."

Jaishankar said that the precision strikes on terror bases conducted on May 7, carried out in response to the Pahalgam attack, were specifically aimed at terrorist targets and not the Pakistani military. "We were not striking at the Pakistani military, so the military had an option of standing out and not interfering. But they chose not to take good advice," Jaishankar said.

India reaches out to Afghan foreign minister

"Welcomed his firm rejection of recent attempts to create distrust between India and Afghanistan through false and baseless reports," he said, reaffirming importance of maintaining trust and mutual respect between the two nations.

Jaishankar further underlined India's traditional friendship with the Afghan people and reiterated New Delhi's continued support for their development needs.

Spoke as an Indian and proud citizen: Tharoor

Shashi Tharoor said that his opinions were individual and not reflective of the Congress party's stand. Tharoor asserted that he spoke as an 'Indian and a proud citizen'. "I am not a spokesperson for the party. I am not the government spokesperson. Whatever I have said, you may agree or disagree, blame it on me individually, and that's fine," said the Congress MP.

A day after Congress leadership distanced itself from senior leader Shashi Tharoor's comments on India-Pakistan conflict in media interviews, different voices emerged from party leaders on the issue.

While the Congress Working Committee (CWC) is learnt to have warned Tharoor of crossing party lines, the Congress MP on Thursday clarified that his comments were made in a personal capacity and did not reflect the party's official position on the issue. However, Tharoor's strong defense of the Modi government's actions have not gone down well with many leaders, who felt that Modi's foreign policy has left India 'friendless and a laughing stock'.

Congress leader Praveen Chakravarty said that Modi government's foreign policy was an utter failure and it is the duty of every Indian leader to point this out in the larger national interest.

"Regardless of what MPs from Thiruvananthapuram ,Thiruchirapalli or Thane may say in English, Tamil or Marathi, the facts are indisputable. US President Trump has said India and Pakistan are equal, Kashmir is an international issue, US forced India to agree to cease fire, among other things," said Chakravarty.

AICC leader Jairam Ramesh told reporters on Wednesday that Tharoor's views do not reflect the official position of the party. "That is his opinion. When Tharoor speaks, it is his view and not the stand of the party," he said.

Responding to the party's stand, Tharoor said that his opinions were individual and not reflective of the Congress party's stand

"I made it very clear that I am expressing my personal views. It was really a contribution to the national discourse, at a time when it was very important for us to rally around the flag, especially internationally. There was a relative lack of our point of view being heard, particularly in the US, Europe, and the Middle East," he said.

Tharoor asserted that he spoke as an 'Indian and a proud citizen'. "I spoke as an Indian. I never pretended to speak for anyone else. I am not a spokesperson for the party. I am not the government spokesperson. Whatever I have said, you may agree or disagree, blame it on me individually, and that's fine," said Tharoor.

The Congress MP also dismissed reports that senior leaders of the CWC were of the view that Tharoor has 'crossed Lakshman Rekha' with his comments on Operation Sindoor and Trump's mediation.

Omar bats for resumption of Tulbul project for economic push to J&K

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

3 JeM terrorists killed in Pulwama encounter

Three Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM) terrorists were killed in an encounter with security forces in Pulwama district of Jammu and Kashmir on Thursday. Forces launched a cordon and search operation in Awantipora after receiving specific inputs about the presence of terrorists there. The search operation turned into a gunfight after the terrorists opened fire at the forces, who retaliated, killing three terrorists.

WITH the Indus Waters Treaty (IWT) kept in abeyance following the Pahalgam terror attack, Jammu and Kashmir Chief Minister Omar Abdullah has called for the resumption of the Tulbul Navigation Project in north Kashmir to boost the region's economy.

The project was halted in 1987 due to pressure from Pakistan, which cited various clauses of the IWT that restrict any storage along the Jhelum river, a part of the Indus basin.

Notably, Articles III and IV of the IWT grant India the rights to use the waters of the Indus river basin for non-consumptive purposes. The Tulbul Navigation Project, also known as the Wular Barrage Project, was initiated in the 1980s with the goal of ensuring year-round navigation that would connect three districts of Kashmir — Anantnag, Srinagar, and Baramulla — and generating electricity downstream, particularly during the winter months.

Abdullah has posted a 30-second video clip on social media platform X (formerly twitter) where it shows Wular lake and suspended civil work of the Tulbul Navigation Barrage.

"It (Tulbul project) was started in the early 1980s but had to be abandoned under pressure from Pakistan citing the Indus Waters Treaty," writes Abdullah.

"Now that the IWT has been 'temporarily suspended', I wonder if we will be able to resume the project. It will give us the advantage of allowing us to use the Jhelum for navigation. It will also improve the power generation of downstream power projects, especially in winter," he adds.

The project intends to regulate water release from Wular Lake to a minimum depth (1.4 metre) in the Jhelum River during lean winter months. India has been consistently raising the completion of the navigation project with Pakistan in secretary-level composite dialogues and side talks at multilateral platforms.

The last time India spoke with Pakistan was in 2014. Then water resource minister Ghulam Nabi Azad told Parliament about ongoing discussion with Pakistan and refused to give time frame for resumption of the work. According to Pakistan's perception, the project structure constitutes barrage with a storage capacity of around 0.3 million acre feet (0.369 billion cubic metre) and that India is not permitted to construct any storage facility on the main stem of the river Jhelum. Indian side has pointed out that the structure is not a storage facility but a navigation facility as defined in the Indus Waters Treaty.

Turkish firm's airport security clearance revoked

S LALITHA @ New Delhi

INDIA on Thursday evening revoked the security clearance given for the Turkish-based ground handling firm, Celebi Airport Services Pvt Ltd. The reason cited in the order issued by the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS), which comes under the ambit of the Ministry of Civil Aviation, was in the interest of national security. The move is set to have a crippling effect on the aviation industry in India as it dominates these services at nine airports.

Celebi is responsible for ground handling at the airports in Mumbai, Delhi, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Kannur, Chennai, Goa, Ahmedabad and Cochin.

The order by said, "The security clearance in respect of Celebi Airport Services India Pvt Ltd under the category Ground Handling Agency was approved by DG, BCAS vide letter no 15/99/2022-Delhi-BCAS/E-219110 dated 21.11.2022. In the exercise of power conferred upon DG, BCAS, the security clearance in r/o Celebi Airport Services India Pvt Ltd is hereby revoked with immediate effect in the interest of national security. "

Before the #BoycottTurkey campaign, it was reported that the Eknath Shinde faction of Shiv Sena had protested in Mumbai demanding the cancellation of the Turkish firm's contract at Mumbai International Airport Limited. Meanwhile, airports are looking for alternatives, following the government backing the boycott of tourists to Turkey.

Delhi International Airport Limited said it was looking at roping in one of the existing cargo handlers to ensure uninterrupted operations. "DIAL is working closely with existing service providers to ensure uninterrupted operations while safeguarding employee welfare. To ensure continuity, DIAL is actively coordinating with the existing Ground Handling service providers - AISATS, and Bird Group."

A spokesperson of Bangalore International Airport Limited (BIAL) said it was working closely with existing ground handling service providers to ensure continuity and operational stability. "BIAL is actively coordinating the transition to maintain seamless airport operations. However, Celeri Aviation India refuted allegations regarding the company's ownership and operations in India.

Aviation Minister Ram Mohan Naidu on Thursday night said arrangements have been made at all affected airports to ensure seamless handling of passengers and cargo.

Prez asks SC if timeline can be imposed on bills

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

PRESIDENT Droupadi Murmu has sent a Presidential Reference to the Supreme Court seeking its opinion on 14 questions related to whether the president and the governors have to follow the apex court's timelines to decide on Bills sent by states for assent.

The reference asks: "In the absence of a constitutionally prescribed timeline and the manner of exercise of powers by the President, can timelines be imposed and the manner of exercise be prescribed through judicial orders for the exercise of discretion by the President under Article 201 of the Constitution of India?"

The same question is asked with reference to the governors. The question is about whether the apex court can set a time of three months for the president to decide on a Bill forwarded by the governor under Article 201 when a "constitutionally prescribed timeline" does not exist.

The reference sent on May 13 raised the questions on the April 8 verdict of the Supreme Court in the matter of the Tamil Nadu governor that laid down the timelines.

The bench of Justices JB Pardiwala and R Mahadevan had set limits ranging from one and three months for the governors to clear the Bills or reserve them for the president's consideration.

According to sources, following the President's submission of the 14-point reference, the Supreme Court will need to constitute a five-judge Constitution Bench to examine and respond to these queries.

Among other critical questions in the reference are: "In the light of the Constitutional scheme governing the powers of the President, is the President required to seek advice of the Supreme Court by way of a reference under Article 143 of the Constitution of India and take the opinion of the Supreme Court when the Governor reserves a Bill for the President's assent or otherwise?"

This is followed by the question seeking a clarification: "Can the exercise of constitutional powers and the orders of /by the President /Governor be substituted in any manner under Article 142 of the Constitution of India?"

14 QUESTIONS RAISED

① What are constitutional options before a governor when a bill is presented to him under Article 200 of the Constitution?

② Is the governor bound by the aid and advice tendered by the Council of Ministers while exercising all the options available with him when a bill is presented before him under Article 200 of the Constitution?

③ Is the exercise of constitutional discretion by the governor under Article 200 of the Constitution of India justiciable?

④ As Article 361 of the Constitution of India an absolute bar to judicial review in relation to the actions of a governor under Article 200 of the Constitution of India?

⑥ Is the exercise of constitutional discretion by the President under Article 201 of the Constitution of India justiciable?

⑦ In the absence of a constitutionally prescribed timeline, can timelines be imposed and the manner of exercise be prescribed through judicial orders for the exercise of discretion by the President under Article 201?

⑨ Are the decisions of the governor and the President under Article 200 and Article 201, respectively, justiciable at a stage anterior into the law coming into force? Is it permissible for courts to undertake judicial adjudication over the contents of a bill?

⑩ Can the exercise of constitutional powers and the orders of/by the President/ governor be substituted in any manner under Article 142 of the Constitution of India?

⑪ Is a law made by the state legislature a law in force without the assent of the governor granted under Article 200?

⑫ Under Article 145(3), is it not mandatory for any bench to first decide whether the question before it is of such a nature which involves substantial questions of law as to the interpretation of Constitution and to refer it to a bench of minimum five judges?

⑬ Are the powers of the SC under Article 142 limited to matters of procedural law or Article 142 extends to issuing directions/passing orders which are contrary to or inconsistent with existing substantive or procedural provisions of the Constitution or law in force?

⑭ Does the Constitution bar any other jurisdiction of the SC to resolve disputes between the Union government and the state governments except by way of a suit under Article 131 of the Constitution of India?

The case pertains to defrauding Punjab National Bank worth ₹6,498.20 crore.Modi's extradition has already been approved by the High Court of UK in favour of the Government of India.

IN a major jolt to fugitive Indian diamond merchant and businessman Nirav Deepak Modi, the High Court of Justice, King's Bench Division, London has rejected his fresh petition seeking bail, the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) said on Thursday.

Modi, who has been facing fraud and money laundering charges in India, has been in prison in London for nearly six years after losing his extradition battle.

The premier probe agency said that the bail petition has been rejected by the High Court of Justice, King's Bench Division, London after hearing Modi's bail arguments, which were strongly opposed by the Crown Prosecution Service with the help of a CBI, who were sent to London to pursue the case.

"The bail arguments were strongly opposed by the Crown Prosecution Service advocate who was ably assisted by a strong CBI team consisting of investigating and law officers who travelled to London for this purpose. CBI could successfully defend the arguments which resulted in the rejection of the bail," the agency said.

It is to be noted that Neerav Modi is a fugitive economic offender, who is wanted for trial in India in a Bank fraud case, which is being investigated by the CBI and Enforcement Directorate. The case pertains to defrauding Punjab National Bank worth ₹6,498.20 crore.

Rahul says will continue to fight for quota in pvt edu institutions

Darbhanga DM says action to be initiated against Cong MP for defying prohibitory orders

RAMASHANKAR @Patna

District admin tried to stop me but failed, says LoP

Armed security personnel were deployed en route to the hostel and Town Hall. However, Gandhi reached the original venue by taking a circuitous route. He claimed the district admin attempted to stop him: "My car was stopped at the gate of Mithila University. But I didn't relent. I exited the car and took a circuitous route to reach here on foot." He said Bihar govt could not stop him, as he had public support.

CONGRESS MP and the Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha, Rahul Gandhi, on Thursday claimed that Prime Minister Narendra Modi had ordered a nationwide caste census "out of fear" of the country's deprived sections.

Interacting with students from SC, ST, OBC and EBC categories at Ambedkar Hostel in Bihar's Darbhanga district as part of the party's 'Shiksha Nyay Samvad' programme, Gandhi said that the Prime Minister conceded the demand to avoid backlash from the deprived sections.

He exhorted youngsters to remain focused on three demands: an effective caste census, like in Congress-ruled Telangana, reservations in private educational institutions, and the release of funds under the SC/ST sub-plan.

Rahul said that youngsters can't expect these things from the ruling NDA. "But rest assured that your interest will be taken care of when we come to power, be in Bihar or at the Centre," it emphasised.

He said he would continue fighting for reservations in private educational institutions. "I will make sure that you are not distracted from your focus and you get your rights. You all have to understand your strength," he told the gathering.

He alleged that the Prime Minister was against the caste census. "I told PM Modi in parliament that he has to conduct a caste census. Due to pressure and fear of backlash from the public, PM Modi ordered a caste census. But the fact is that he is against caste census and the Constitution," he asserted.

The former Congress president alleged that the ruling dispensation at the Centre only cared about business magnates and not about society's deprived sections. "The system is working for the benefit of only five per cent of the population. Dalits, OBCs and tribals have no say, be in the government, the corporate or even in the media," he added.

Braving the blistering sun, he reached the hostel, the original venue for the party's programme. Late Wednesday evening, the district administration shifted the venue to Town Hall, citing security reasons.

Armed security personnel were deployed en route to the hostel and Town Hall. However, Gandhi reached the original venue by taking a circuitous route.

He claimed the district administration attempted to stop him: "As you are aware, my car was stopped at the gate of Mithila University. But I didn't relent. I exited the car and took a circuitous route to reach here on foot."

He clarified that Bihar's BJP-JD(U) government could not stop him because of the strength and support of the people. "Do you realise why the government in Bihar could not stop me? It was because I am propelled by the vast pool of energy that you embody. It is the same energy before which Narendra Modi had to bow," he told the crowd.

He described Bihar's NDA government as 'double-engine dhokhebaaz sarkaar' and exhorted the people to uproot it.

Meanwhile, Darbhanga district magistrate Rajiv Raushan said action would be initiated against the Congress leader for defying the official directive, clarifying that the venue was shifted due to security and legal concerns.

Earlier, Congress workers staged a protest outside Ambedkar Welfare Hostel's entrance gate to pressure the officials to allow Gandhi in. Rahul later watched the movie Phule before leaving for New Delhi.

Sule dismisses Maha buzz on NCP merger, says busy with framing party policy

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

I am occupied in policy-making work. We have been working on the income tax and the One Nation, One Election Bill. As a policy maker, I take my job very seriously, so there is no time to react and think about what the media has been speculating.

Supriya Sule, NCP-SP MP

NCP-SP MP and daughter of former Union minister Sharad Pawar, Supriya Sule, dismissed all speculation of a merger with the NCP of Ajit Pawar on Thursday.

Talking to the New Indian Express, Sule denied any such move, saying there was no such proposal. She asserted that there had been no change in her stand.

Sharad Pawar recently said his daughter would decide her future and the party's. That led to speculation that he and his nephew, Ajit Pawar, were merging their parties.

Clearing the air, Sule said that the statement by the senior Pawar had been twisted. "I am occupied in policy-making work. We have been working on the income tax and the One Nation, One Election Bill. As a policy maker, I take my job very seriously, so there is no time to react and think about what the media has been speculating."

She confirmed that if anything were to happen, it would be between Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar and herself, and there was no place for a third person or a third party to intervene and speak on their behalf.

"Ajit Pawar has also clarified that there is no such proposal to merge both NCPs. So, my statement is also the same. I am standing where I was standing. There is no change of stand in my ideology and commitment. I am firm. Therefore, there is neither acceptance nor denial of the report. Everything is in the air. Before I make any statement, everyone is speaking about it," she lamented.

Clarifying her father's original statement, Sule said that when asked about her future, Sharad Pawar had said, "She has to decide." According to her, "it was an obvious answer."

She said his response was taken to mean something else. "The question was limited, so the answer, but the media is stretching the issue and speculating about the non-existent thing. Therefore, in our party, no one has reacted to it."

Suspense over DGP Gupta's salary

Amid a tussle between the Centre- and the state over the extension of Jharkhand DGP Anurag Gupta's service, he hasn't been issued his salary slip after April 30. Sources in the Principal Accountant General (PAG) office said a zero-salary slip was issued to him, considering he had retired on April 30. That means he won't get his salary from the treasury after April 2025. The sources in the PAG office said that DGP Gupta and the treasury have been informed that the former will not get his regular salary after April.

Three months' advance ration ahead of monsoon

The Jharkhand government has announced the distribution of advance ration for three months—June, July, and August—to 2.88 crore ration card holders across the state. The Department of Food, Public Distribution and Consumer Affairs has issued orders for the advance distribution to be completed between June 1 and June 30. District administrations have been directed to ensure timely and error-free delivery, with strict warnings that negligence would not be tolerated. State Food Minister Dr. Irfan Ansari emphasised the government's commitment to the poor, calling the move a reflection of CM Hemant Soren's pro-people governance.

JMM links caste count to religion code demand

Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM), the ruling party in Jharkhand, has said that it will not allow the Union government to conduct a caste census in the state unless the Centre accepts the long-pending demand for the Sarna Religious Code. Many tribal communities, primarily from Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh, Odisha, West Bengal, Bihar, Assam, and Madhya Pradesh, believe that they follow a nature worship system in which natural elements such as trees, mountains, and rivers are revered. Supporters of the Sarna Religious Code argue that tribals should be allowed to indicate their religion in the census. The census form does not have the option to select Sarna religion, so tribals are forced to choose either 'Hindu', 'Christian', or 'Other'.

After tigress Shakti, lion Pataudi dies in Kanpur zoo; bird flu suspected

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

Lion was quarantined on suspicion of bird flu

Additional samples from animals have been collected and sent for testing. For the last two days, the feline — which was under treatment for pancreatic and hepatic infections — did not consume food and survived on water. The lion was quarantined on the suspicion of bird flu.

AMID the rising bird flu scare, Asiatic lion 'Pataudi' died at Kanpur zoo on Thursday, days after the death of tigress Shakti.

Indisposed Pataudi, 15, was brought to Kanpur zoo from Ashfaq Ullah Khan Zoological Park in Gorakhpur on May 11 for treatment after the death of the tigress due to bird flu. Zoo authorities sent the visceral samples of the feline to National Institute of High Security Animal Diseases (NIHSAD), Bhopal for testing.

State wildlife authorities have already shut Lucknow, Kanpur and Gorakhpur zoos along with the Etawah Lion Safari till May 20 as a precautionary measure.

Additional samples from animals have been collected and sent for testing. Officials said the lion was under treatment of pancreatic and hepatic infections. For the last two days, the feline had stopped consuming food and was surviving only on water. The lion was quarantined on the suspicion of bird flu.

According to Dr Nasir, who had been supervising the team of four veterinary doctors attending Pataudi, the lion had consumed a kg of chicken upon his arrival in Kanpur Zoo on May 11. However, he stopped eating from Tuesday onwards.

While the Kanpur Zoo authorities are awaiting Pataudi's test reports, doctors of Bareilly's Indian Veterinary Research Institute expressed the fear of Pataudi having bird flu. Kanpur Zoo ranger Naved Ikram said, "Other animals are healthy but under strict observation of the vets. Everyone was instructed to enter the wildlife enclosures only in PPE kits."

Authorities moved swiftly, and police arrested Haji Ayyub Kachhiya on Thursday. The other accused, Saddam Kasam, was caught after a successful hunt. Inspector Bharti Vegda confirmed the sequence of events and described the assault as brutal.

IN a chilling incident, a 35-year-old physically challenged man was fatally thrown off the Saurashtra Express near Jamnagar in Gujarat, after confronting two intruders who had unlawfully entered a coach reserved for disabled passengers.

The victim, identified as Hitesh Mistry of Vadodara, was returning home from Porbandar on Tuesday night, accompanied by a disabled friend. According to Jamnagar railway police said an altercation unfolded between Porbandar and Jamnagar when the duo—identified as Haji Ayyub Kachhiya and Saddam Kasam—entered the specially designated coach.

Mistry objected to their presence, and the ensuing argument quickly escalated. The accused reportedly assaulted Mistry and, moments later, pushed him off the moving train before it reached Hapa station.

As the assault went on, Mistry's friend, also a disabled passenger, got off at Jamnagar station to seek help. However, unable to find a police official before the train resumed its journey, he was forced to reboard another compartment. Upon reaching Hapa, he rushed back to the special coach, only to find Mistry and the two men missing.

Alarmed, he alerted the railway police at Hapa and filed a formal complaint. A few hours later, on Wednesday morning, Mistry's lifeless body was discovered under the Gulabnagar railway over-bridge near Jamnagar city.

The authorities moved swiftly and the police arrested Haji Ayyub Kachhiya on Thursday. The other accused, Saddam Kasam, was caught after a successful hunt. Inspector Bharti Vegda confirmed the sequence of events and described the assault as brutal.

"A case was registered at the Jamnagar Railway Police Station on Wednesday. As per the complaint, a disabled person was travelling on the Saurashtra Express when, between Porbandar and Jamnagar, two men entered the special coach," said Investigating Officer Bharti Vegda.

"When Mistry objected, they got into a quarrel with him, assaulted him, and pushed him off the moving train, which led to his death." She said

"One of the accused, Haji Ayyub Kachhiya, was arrested immediately at Hapa station, while the second accused, Saddam Kasam, initially fled but was caught within a few hours of the case being registered. Both are currently in police custody, and further investigation is underway," she added.

CM lauds forces for ops, talks Bastar progress

EJAZ KAISER @Raipur

CHHATTISGARH CM Vishnu Deo Sai on Thursday interacted with security forces at the CRPF camp in Galgam, south Bastar and held discussions on the next phase of strategy following the decisive operation 'Black Forest' that dismantled the crucial base of the banned outfit CPI (Maoist) at Karreguttalu.

The CM commended the achievement of the forces in the tough inhospitable Karreguttalu forested hilly terrain as he affirmed that the military victory at the strategic areas should now be converted into long-term development and peace. His visit to the camp, located along the edgy inter-district border of Bijapur-Dantewada, was also intended to boost the morale of the jawans. "The fight ahead will not be waged by weapons and courage alone, but also through education, employment, and inclusive development in the region. The operation was more than a military success and the moment has arrived with the crucial opportunity to pave the way for sustainable peace and prosperity," Sai asserted. The visit was a part of the ongoing state government's 'Sushasan Tyohaar' (Good Governance Festival), a flagship initiative aimed at taking governance to the grassroots and closely tracking the implementation of public welfare schemes. During his stop at gram panchayat Muler, the CM held a dialogue with locals under a tree and reviewed key development projects.

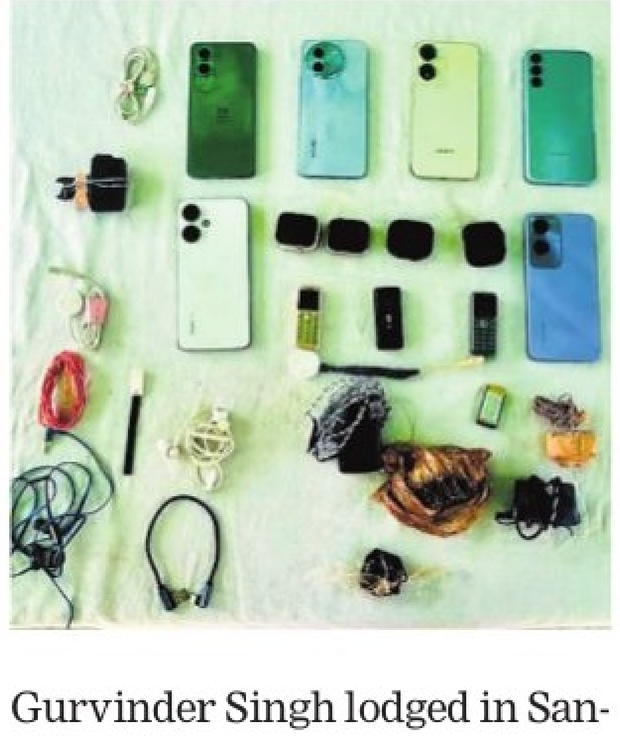
Operation 'Black Forest' was executed in Bijapur's south-west forest border area adjoining the Telangana border for 21 days during which the troops cautiously secured a substantial area of a lesser-known Karreguttalu hilly topography surrounded by forests from the grip of left-wing extremists. During the operation as many as 31 Maoists were killed. The security forces traced several Maoists bunkers, arms making units and hideouts that were destroyed. The state government is aggressively countering the Maoist menace on two fronts: precise diligent police action and rapid development plans, a government spokesperson said. He also met around 90 surrendered Maoists at a rehabilitation centre in Dantewada, where they are receiving training to secure dignified livelihoods in fields like drone operation, poultry farming, etc. Sai assured that the rehabilitated surrendered Maoists will soon be integrated into development initiatives.

22 yrs on, woman Maoist held for police post blast

Patna: Meenakshi, a Maoist activist wanted in connection with a police station blast about 22 years back, was arrested from a village under West Champaran district. A joint team of special task force and district police conducted a raid at Sundarpur. She was involved in blowing up the Gobarahia police station with dynamites in 2003.

Hi-tech smuggling racket busted in Sangrur jail, DSP arrested after raid

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh



A deputy superintendent of police (DSP) was arrested for his alleged involvement in the smuggling of drugs and mobile phones into the Sangrur jail in Punjab.

DGP Gaurav Yadav confirmed the arrest of DSP Gurpreet Singh posted at the Sangrur jail. "Acting on intelligence inputs, a raid inside the Sangrur Jail led to the recovery of 12 mobile phones, 4 smartwatches, 50 grams of opium, 12 grams heroin and other contraband items. The preliminary investigation has also pointed to the involvement of a Class-IV employee, Parshant, whose role in facilitating the smuggling activities came to light," Yadav said on Thursday.

He said the investigation further led to the arrest of Amritsar-based drug smuggler, Manpreet Singh, an associate of Gurvinder Singh lodged in Sangrur Jail.

Police teams have recovered 4 kg heroin, ₹5.5 lakh in drug money and a 9mm Glock pistol along with two live cartridges from Manpreet's possession, he added.

Sangrur SSP Sangrur Sartaj Singh Chahal said investigation revealed that DSP Gurpreet was involved in the smuggling of drugs and mobile phones into the jail premises.

He said that probe has also revealed that the accused DSP had received ₹40,000 cash from inmate Gurvinder's relative and ₹26,000 in his wife's account to facilitate smuggling of 25 gram heroin and two mobile phones into the jail premises. He said 12 gram heroin has been recovered from another inmate, identified as Ravi, who was selling drugs to more inmates.

"Further investigations are on to establish forward and backward linkages in the case to unearth the entire network. More arrests and recoveries are likely in the coming days," Chahal said.

A case has been registered under sections of the NDPS Act, Prisons Act and the Arms Act at police station city-1 Sangrur. Section 7 of the Prevention of Corruption Act has been added later, the SSP said.

Trump's curbs on ICC prosecutor halt tribunal work

THE HAGUE

THE Hague-based court's American staffers have been told that if they travel to the US they risk arrest. Some non-governmental organisations have stopped working with the ICC and the leaders of one won't even reply to emails from court officials.

Those are just some of the hurdles facing court staff since US President Donald Trump in February slapped sanctions on its chief prosecutor, Karim Khan, according to interviews with current and former ICC officials, international lawyers and human rights advocates. The sanctions will 'prevent victims from getting access to justice,' said Liz Evenson, international justice director at Human Rights Watch.Trump sanctioned the court after a panel of International Criminal Court (ICC) judges in November issued arrest warrants for Israeli PM Benjamin Netanyahu and his former defence minister, Yoav Gallant. AP

No show by heads of state for peace talks in Istanbul

Zelenskyy sends delegation after Putin stays away from meeting

ANKARA

UKRAINIAN President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said Thursday he is sending a team headed by his defense minister to Istanbul for the first direct peace talks with a Russian delegation since the early weeks of Moscow's full-scale invasion in 2022.

Zelenskyy made the move after Russian President Vladimir Putin stayed away from a face-to-face meeting with him in Turkey that the Ukrainian leader had proposed in a flurry of diplomatic maneuvers last weekend.

Zelenskyy told a news conference in the Turkish capital Ankara the Russian delegation doesn't include "anyone who actually makes decisions," accusing Moscow of not taking efforts to end the war seriously. But he said that to demonstrate to US President Donald Trump that Ukraine is seeking an end to the conflict he had decided to send officials from Ankara to Istanbul — more than 400 kilometers (almost 300 miles) away — for their first direct talks since March 2022, following Russia's full-scale invasion of its neighbor the previous month.

He said the Ukrainian side would be headed by Defense Minister Rustem Umerov and its aim is "to attempt at least the first steps toward de-escalation, the first steps toward ending the war — namely, a ceasefire." Putin's absence punctured hopes of a breakthrough in peace efforts that were given a push in recent months by the Trump administration and Western European leaders amid the intense maneuvering. It also raised the prospect of intensified international sanctions on Russia that have been threatened by the West.

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan earlier welcomed Zelenskyy with an honor guard at the presidential palace in Ankara before the two held talks.

"Now, after three years of immense suffering, there is finally a window of opportunity," Turkish Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan said at a NATO meeting taking place separately in Turkey. "The talks … hopefully may open a new chapter."

US President Donald Trump said Thursday he was not surprised that Russian President Vladimir Putin will be a no-show for anticipated peace talks with Ukraine in Turkey this week. Trump, who had pressed for Putin and Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy to meet in Istanbul, brushed off Putin's apparent decision to not take part in the expected talks.

"I didn't think it was possible for Putin to go if I'm not there," Trump said in an exchange with reporters as he took part in a business roundtable with executives in Doha on the third day of his visit to the Middle East. AFP

Trump says US and Iran have 'sort of' agreed on terms for nuclear deal

DOHA

PRESIDENT Donald Trump said Thursday that the United States and Iran have "sort of" agreed to terms on a nuclear deal, offering a measure of confidence that an accord is coming into sharper focus.

Trump, in an exchange with reporters at a business roundtable in Doha, Qatar, described the talks between American envoy Steve Witkoff and Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi as "very serious negotiations" for "long-term peace" and were continuing to progress. Still, throughout his visit with Arab Gulf leaders this week, the president has underscored that military action against Iran's nuclear facilities remains a possibility if the talks derail.

"Iran has sort of agreed to the terms: They're not going to make, I call it, in a friendly way, nuclear dust," Trump said at the business event.

"We're not going to be making any nuclear dust in Iran." Without offering detail, he signaled growing alignment with the terms that he has been seeking.

But a top political, military and nuclear adviser to Iran's supreme leader, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, told NBC News on Wednesday that Tehran stands ready get rid of its stockpiles of highly enriched uranium that can be weaponised, agree to enrich uranium only to the lower levels needed for civilian use and allow international inspectors to supervise the process. Ali Shamkhani added that in return, Iran wants an immediate lifting of all economic sanctions. Trump said his demands have been straightforward. "They can't have a nuclear weapon. That's the only thing. It's very simple," Trump said. "It's not like I have to give you 30 pages worth of details. It is only one sentence. They can't have a nuclear weapon."

But Trump on Wednesday suggested he was looking for Tehran to make other concessions as part of a potential agreement.

Iran "must stop sponsoring terror, halt its bloody proxy wars and permanently and verifiably cease pursuit of nuclear weapons," Trump said in remarks at a meeting in Saudi Arabia of leaders from the Gulf Cooperation Council. AP

NATO debates US push for massive defence hike

Antalya: NATO foreign ministers met in Turkey to discuss a US proposal for members to boost defence spending to 5% of GDP by 2032, citing threats from Russia, terrorism, and China. While many allies lag behind the current 2% target, Washington's pressure grows ahead of June's summit as Ukraine's war and Trump's defense demands reshape alliance priorities and unity.

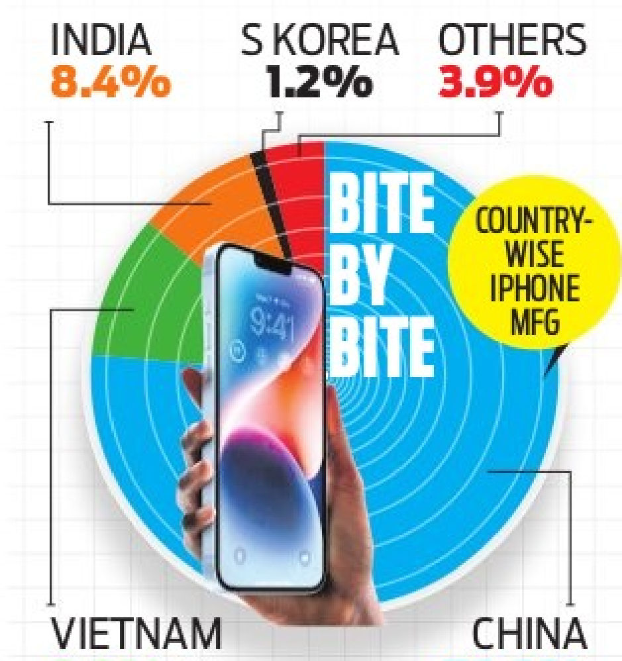
TRUMP URGES APPLE TO HALT IPHONE MFG IN INDIA



> Companies like Apple make decisions based on competitiveness, and India has demonstrated that
>

S&P data says 81.9% of iPhones exported from India between Dec 2024 and Feb 2025 were shipped to the US

In March 2025, iPhone exports to the US surged to 97.6%

Apple sold 75.9 mn iPhones in the US in 2024

In March alone, exports from India were nearly 3.1 mn units

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

IN a move that could jeopardise India's ambitions to become a hub for iPhone manufacturing, US President Donald Trump on Thursday said he has asked Apple Inc. CEO Tim Cook to stop producing iPhones in the country. Trump described India as one of the highest tariff nations in the world, making it "very hard to sell" products there.

Trump made the remarks during a business roundtable in Doha, Qatar. "I had a little problem with cook yesterday (Wednesday). I said to him, my friend, I am treating you very good. You are coming up with $500 billion but now I hear you are building all over India. I don't want you building in India. You can build in India, if you want to take care of India as India is one of the highest tariff nations in the world so it is hard to sell in India," said Trump.

His statement came after Cook announced on May 2 that the majority of iPhones to be sold in the US during the June 2025 quarter will be made in India. Speaking during the company's second-quarter earnings call, Cook noted that China would remain primary manufacturing base for most Apple products sold outside the US. The shift to India is believed to be driven by lower reciprocal tariffs on Indian-made products as against those from China and Vietnam.

Meanwhile, a government official told TNIE, "Companies like Apple make decisions based on competitiveness, and India has demonstrated it can support sophisticated manufacturing. We've built a solid ecosystem, especially for labour-intensive and assembly-based operations." As per a PTI report, Apple assured Indian government officials that the company's investment plans for India are intact and the company proposes to make the country a major manufacturing base for its products.

Currently, China dominates global phone production, accounting for 76.6% of total supply. Vietnam contributes 9.9%, India 8.4%, and South Korea 1.2%. As per S&P Global Market Intelligence, 81.9% of iPhones exported from India between December 2024 and February 2025 were shipped to the US. In March 2025, that figure surged to 97.6% following a 219% jump in exports — likely a result of Apple expediting shipments ahead of expected US tariffs.

Exports rise 9% in April; US shipments surge 27% to $8.5 bn

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

DESPITE the 10% tariff imposed by the US in April, India's merchandise exports rose by 9% during the month with exports to the US surging by 27%.Total exports during the month was at $38.5 billion as against $35.3 billion a year ago. Exports to the US rose to $8.5 billion in April 2025, even as imports from the country jumped 64% to $5.2 billion. The US had announced a reciprocal tariff of 26% on Indian goods on 2 April this year, and a baseline tariff of 10% was imposed from 5 April. Later, the 26% tariff was put on hold for 90 days.

Releasing the trade numbers, commerce secretary Sunil Barthwal said India's exports showed resilience despite global supply chain disruptions and rise in insurance cost. He attributed the strong April numbers to government strategies focusing on 30 key countries and six major commodity sectors, which he says have proven effective.

When asked why exports to the US rose despite the baseline tariff coming into force, Barthwal said when tariffs affect one country, others may gain relatively. "Our export advantage may grow if tariffs remain higher for others," he added, though he declined to pinpoint the exact factors (for surge in US exports) without comprehensive analysis. Imports also grew by a strong 19% year-on-year to $65 billion during the month as against $54.5 billion a year ago. Trade deficit in April widened to $26.5 billion as against $19.2 billion a year ago. Services showed even better numbers with exports growing 17% to $35.31 billion in April 2025 as against $30.2 April 2024. Services imports grew at 5% to $17.5 billion. Engineering products, which was the biggest exporting item in April, an 11.3% growth YoY, petroleum products exports grew by 4.68% while electronics exports jumped 40% to $3.7 billion during the month. Among electronics items, smartphones account for the biggest chunk of exports from India.

Singtel to sell 1% equity share in Bharti Airtel for $1 billion

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

SINGTEL, Singapore's telecom giant, is likely to sell shares worth $1 billion (about ₹8,570 crore) in Bharti Airtel through a large block deal on Friday. The deal involves the sale of 4.76 crore shares, with the floor price set at ₹1,800 per share — a 3.6% discount to Bharti Airtel's last traded market price.

The deal will be managed by JP Morgan, the designated broker for the transaction. Singtel's Pastel currently holds a 9.49% stake in Bharti Airtel, and this sale will reduce its holding by just under 1%.

Singtel had previously offloaded its stake in Airtel in March last year. It had then sold a 0.8% stake in Airtel, or 49 million shares, to US investment management firm GQG Partners for $711 million. SBI Pension, SBI Life and ICICI Prudential had also participated in the share purchase.

STAKE SALE
The deal involves the sale of 4.76 crore shares, with the floor price set at `1,800 per share — a 3.6% discount to Airtel's last traded market price. Singtel had previously offloaded its stake in Airtel in March last year

Before that, Pastel sold a 1.59% stake in Bharti Airtel for ₹7,261 crore in November 2022. This stake sale had come months after Singtel had offloaded 3.3% stake in Bharti Airtel to BTL for ₹12,895 crore, equivalent to $1.6 billion, in August 2022.

The stake sale by Singtel in one of India's biggest companies (in terms of market capitalization) is in lines with its broader capital recycling strategy to reallocate capital toward its core and digital businesses.

Singtel has a direct 9.5% ownership through its affiliate, Pastel. It also has an indirect interest in Airtel, totalling 29%, through its 49.44% stake in Bharti Telecom Ltd (BTL), the primary promoter entity of Airtel. BTL itself owns a 40.47% stake in Airtel. Airtel recently reported a 77% YoY surge in its adjusted profit after tax (PAT) to ₹5,223 crore in Q4FY25). Revenue grew by 27% during the quarter to ₹47,876 crore.

Markets up over 1.5%; Nifty reclaims 25,000 after 7 months

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

DOMESTIC equity market surged sharply on Thursday with the benchmark NSE Nifty reclaiming the 25,000 mark after seven months and BSE Sensex advancing 1,200 points. The fresh rally is primairy attributed to softening of inflation and easing trade tensions between India and the USA.

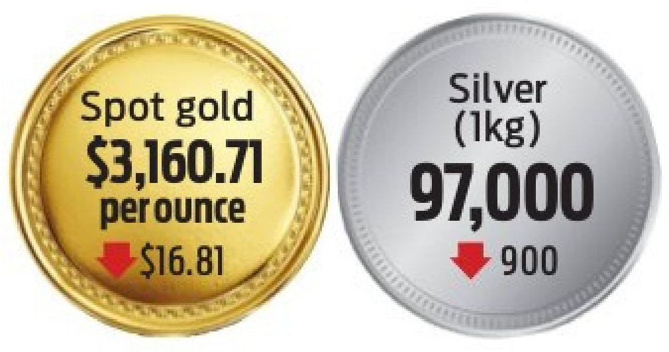
The BSE Sensex gained 1,200.18 points or 1.48% to settle the day at 82,530.74 while the Nifty settled above the 25,000 mark at 25,062.10, up by 395.20 points or 1.6 %. The two benchmarks have rallied about 4% each in the four sessions of this week. "The bullish momentum was underpinned by a favorable shift in global cues and renewed optimism surrounding a potential India-US trade agreement. Additionally, a rally in rate-sensitive sectors on growing expectations of a rate cut, coupled with sustained foreign institutional investor (FII) inflows, added to the upside," said analysts at Bajaj Broking Research.

Palka Arora Chopra, director, Master Capital Services, said the key catalyst to Thursday's surge could be the moderation in inflation rates, which has strengthened market expectations of a potential rate cut by the RBI in the coming months, thereby boosting investor confidence. In addition, speculation about a possible early trading agreement between India and the United States has boosted market bullishness, especially among export-quality and globally traded sectors Chopra added that this momentum is being aided by the continued inflow of foreign institutional investor (FII) funds, as many global investors returned to Indian stocks.

"Another part of the recent rally in the Indian markets was the lessening of India-Pakistan tension, which might have been an important contributor to uncertainty. On the whole, this slowing of downward pressure and uncertainty has fed opportunity and ultimately produced a broad-based rally across key indices," stated Chopra.

GOLD FALLS ₹1,800 TO ₹95K/10G

BIVEKANANDA BISWAS @ New Delhi



FOLLOWING the falling trend in the international market, domestic gold prices on Thursday declined nearly ₹1,800 to ₹95,050 per 10 grams in the national capital.

As per the All India Sarafa Association, the yellow metal of 99.5% purity plunged ₹1,800 to ₹94,600 per 10 grams (inclusive of all taxes).Gold of 99.9% and 99.5% purity had closed at ₹96,850 and ₹96,400 per 10 grams, respectively, on Wednesday. As uncertainty fades, investors are shifting towards riskier assets. Silver prices were also on a losing streak for the fourth straight day, declining ₹900 to ₹97,000 per kg. The white metal had settled at ₹98,000 per kg in the previous market session.

"On Thursday, bullion extended its losses due to several bearish factors, including the hawkish stance of multiple Fed members, the overall recovery of the US dollar, and a reduction in trade tensions. All these factors have contributed to the decline over the last two sessions," said Anuj Gupta, head of commodities & currencies at HDFC Securities. Higher yields and interest rates have a negative impact on non-interest-bearing gold, Gupta said.

Yields on US treasuries have surged because investors believe the Fed will delay lowering borrowing costs longer than earlier expected. This expectation is fuelled by a optimistic economic outlook following the US-China trade truce. The fall in bullion prices was reinforced by stabilisation of geopolitical risks, notably the easing of India-Pakistan tensions and growing optimism surrounding potential US sanctions relief on Syria, as per Axis Securities. Globally, spot gold fell $16.81, or 0.53% to $3,160.71 per ounce. Pranav Mer of JM Financial, said investors now will focus on Russia-Ukraine peace talks and US macroeconomic data.

AGR dues: Vi plea for waiver of ₹30k cr in SC

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

VODAFONE IDEA (Vi) has filed a fresh petition in the Supreme Court seeking a waiver of over ₹30,000 crore in adjusted gross revenue (AGR) dues pertaining to interest, penalty, and interest on penalty components.

Senior advocate Mukul Rohatgi, representing Vodafone Idea, brought the matter before a bench headed by Chief Justice BR Gavai, seeking an urgent hearing. The apex court is scheduled to hear the plea on May 19.

Vi survival crucial

Vi argued that the survival of the telco is crucial for maintaining competition within telecom sector. Vi emphasised its inability to bear substantial financial burden on its own. It also said the government now holds a significant stake in Vi

Rohatgi argued that the survival of Vodafone Idea is crucial for maintaining competition within country's telecom sector. He emphasised the company's inability to bear the substantial financial burden on its own. He also highlighted that the central government now holds a significant stake in Vodafone Idea, following a recent equity conversion of interest dues.

This new plea comes in the wake of the Supreme Court's February decision to dismiss a series of review petitions from telecom operators, including Vodafone Idea. The court had upheld the Department of Telecommunications' (DoT) calculation of adjusted gross revenue dues and disallowed any rectification of alleged arithmetical errors.

Meanwhile, the company's chief executive officer Akshaya Moondra has urged the Department of Telecom to consider allowing the conversion of upcoming adjusted gross revenue and spectrum dues from the 2012, 2014, 2015, and 2016 auctions into additional government equity. If approved, this could potentially increase the government's stake in the company."

IndusInd internal audit finds ₹675 cr discrepancy in micro-finance book

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Internal Audit Department (IAD) of the IndusInd Bank has detected a couple of more accounting errors in the lender's account.

The Hinduja Group-promoted bank in an exchange filing has said an internal audit has pointed out that ₹674 crore was incorrectly recorded as interest in its micro finance business over three quarters of FY25. This was fully reversed on January 10, 2025, according to the bank.

'Unsubstantiated balance'

In yet another instance of accounting error, the bank's internal audit team has stumbled upon 'unsubstantiated balances aggregating to ₹595 crore in Other Assets accounts of the bank

In yet another instance of accounting error, the bank's internal audit team has stumbled upon 'unsubstantiated balances aggregating to ₹595 crore in Other Assets accounts of the bank'. These were set off against corresponding balances appearing in Other Liabilities accounts in January 2025. The internal audit was ordered after a whistleblower complaint.

The bank has informed the exchanges that the internal audit department has also examined the roles and actions of key employees in this context. "The Board is taking necessary steps to strengthen internal controls, fix accountability of the persons responsible for these lapses and will take action as appropriate," said the bank in its filing.

It must be noted that earlier this year, the bank had identified ₹1,979 crore losses due to discrepancies relating to derivatives accounting. This led to the ouster of MD and CEO Sumant Kathpalia and whole-time director and & deputy CEO Arun Khurana. In his resignation letter submitted to the board of Kathpalia took the moral responsibility for the derivatives losses incurred by the bank.

Unemployment rate at 5.1% in Apr, joblessness among men higher

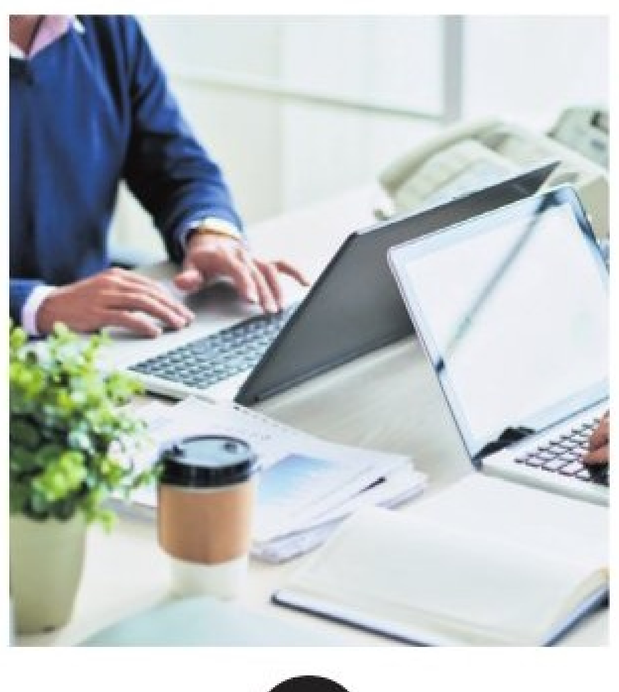
ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

THE country's unemployment rate in April stood at 5.1% for individuals aged 15 years and above. This is the first time, the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation has released its monthly Periodic Labour Force Survey (PLFS), which shows that joblessness among men stood at 5.2%, slightly higher that of women at 5%.

Until now, the survey was released on a quarterly basis, and this monthly PLFS from now on will help in timely policy interventions. Unemployment among those in the age group of 15-29 stood at 13.8% and the rate of unemployment in rural areas was at 12.3% and in urban areas it was at 17.2%.

Paras Jasrai, associate director at India Ratings and Research, said the data for April offers a major improved window in understanding the labour force dynamics of India.

"Though overall headline unemployment rate (UR) is low at 5.1%, rural-urban gap is indicative of the job creation pressures in the urban areas (rural UR: 4.5%; urban UR: 6.5%). In terms of age and gender wise UR, the youth UR is higher for females living in urban areas than males (23.7% v 15.0%). However, the situation is the opposite in rural areas, wherein the youth UR was lower for females as against males (10.7% vs 13.0%)," he said. He added that this could be due to higher female preferences for education in urban areas than rural areas and low employment opportunities in urban areas than rural areas for females. Aditya Narayan Mishra, MD & CEO of CIEL HR, said unemployment is a real and challenge, and the government's decision to release data monthly reflects its intent to monitor and respond more effectively. "Earlier, long gaps between data collection and publication delayed policy actions. Monthly updates will bring agility and allow for targeted interventions," he said.



> Though headline unemployment rate (UR) is low at 5.1%, rural-urban gap is indicative of the job creation pressures in the urban areas (rural UR: 4.5%; urban UR: 6.5%)

> Paras Jasrai, India Ratings and Research

The data showed the worker population ratio which represents employment rate, was at 38% in rural areas and 34.1% in urban areas. The overall employment rate was at 52.8%.

Infy employees get lower bonus payouts for Q4

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

AMID global macroeconomic uncertainty, cautious client spending and tariff issues, IT services firm Infosys has paid the lowest bonus to its employees for the March 2025 quarter.

Sources told TNIE that depending on business units' performance, it paid between 50% and 70% to its employees and majority of them received 60% or below and only a few would have received close to 70%. Sources also said that during previous quarters, employees had received even 85%-90% bonus, and this might be the lowest in the last few years.

Recently, the country's largest IT services firm Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) slashed its employees' variable pay to 30%. Earlier during Q4 earnings, TCS had said it would defer wage hikes for its employees due to macroeconomic uncertainty. Milind Lakkad, chief HR Officer, had said, "Considering uncertain business environment, we will decide during the year when to make that happen." IT companies are cautious when it comes to hiring. Wipro, which added just over 600 people in Q4FY25, didn't specify hiring guidance in FY26.

With new coach Jan Zelezny by his side, javelin ace will be eyeing a good show in his 1st major meet of 2025 in Doha

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

WHEN Neeraj Chopra is introduced to the spectators at the Qatar Sports Club Stadium a little after 7.30 PM local time (10 PM IST) on Friday, it will mark the beginning of a new era for India's only active two-time Olympic medallist in athletics. For so long, the long-haired, bandana-wearing Chopra, the man responsible for leading a javelin revolution in the country, had in his corner the German biomechanics expert, Klaus Bartonietz.

That highly successful association — two Olympic medals including a gold in 2021, a similar haul at the Worlds and other big-ticket events — came to an end late last year after the 76-year-old quit the programme to spend some time with his family.

Athletes are generally creatures of habit. Even before heading to sleep the previous night, their next 24 hours are carefully mapped to ensure every minute is spent in becoming the best versions of themselves. Considering that, moving beyond a coach who had been a part of his shadow for the last five years is a significant challenge.

Manisha Malhotra, the head of sports excellence and scouting at JSW Sports, said it's a 'new phase' for Chopra. "I think it's like a new phase for Neeraj and he is optimistic about his preparation and form," she said. "He is healthy, fit and looking forward to a good season. Obviously, this year the main goal is the Worlds and he will look to repeat winning there (the javelin ace has a longstanding partnership with JSW Sports)."

2024	Doha DL	88.36m
2023	Doha DL	88.67m

2021	Indian GP 3, Patiala	88.07m

*Chopra was the only non South African in the field

Field: Neeraj Chopra, Kishore Jena, Julius Yego, Julian Weber, Keshorn Walcott, Jakub Vadlejch, Anderson Peters, Ahmed Hussein, Oliver Helander, Max Dehning, Genki Dean.

> In the beginning it (training under Jan) was hard, but after two weeks I really liked it and now I did some really great sessions and everything is going very well. We changed some little things in technique and I feel good. — Neeraj Chopra

The 27-year-old was predictably asked about his fledgling alliance with Jan Zelezny, the Czech great who had become synonymous with javelin late last century. "With Jan, it's going really well, in the beginning it was challenging but now it's going well," Chopra told reporters in the pre-event press conference ahead of the Doha Diamond League on Thursday. "It has helped me, not just in training. He was great when he was competing himself. So he is helping me with other things, like how you have to be strong and compete with a strong mindset. It's going really well."

The Indian delved deeper into the kind of 'challenges' he has faced under the Czech. "It was a new experience for me," he said.

"In the beginning it was hard, but after two weeks I really liked it and now I did some really great sessions and everything is going very well. We changed some little things in technique and I feel good. Also I always had some problem in my groin and this time, I have never missed any session, so I feel very confident about it."

That should help Chopra ease into the season with the target of peaking at the World Championships in Tokyo in September. Considering the Indian had been bogged down with a persistent and niggling groin problem before, during and after the Paris Games, he may now be pain free. As always, the one question is whether he can finally breach the 90m mark.

With Zelezny by his side — the Czech great used to do that in his sleep (he has over 50 legal throws beyond 90m) — this could be the year when he sails past that mark. Even from a competition standpoint, Chopra needs to have it in his locker. With a stacked field and plenty of 90m throwers, consistently good is good but consistently good with at least one explosive throw is better.

Take this example. Chopra is the World No 2 but he's also the one of the only two inside the top six without a legitimate 90m throw. When you add the likes of Arshad Nadeem, whose monster 92m earned him global gold in Paris, and Chopra knows he has to start hitting that mark to finish to be in with a chance of the big medals. For these are the margins at the elite level. Normally, Chopra, yet to finish outside the top two in each of the last 20 finals, wouldn't be unhappy with where he's at.

Don't have a strong relationship with Nadeem

He was also asked to expand on his relationship with Nadeem in the aftermath of the terror attack in Pahalgam and the subsequent escalation between India and Pakistan (Chopra also found himself on the receiving end of a seemingly orchestrated troll attack on social media after he had invited Nadeem to the since postponed NC Classic, a standalone elite javelin meet in Bengaluru). "I really want to clarify that I don't have a very strong relationship (Nadeem)," he said. "Javelin throwers are a relatively small community, and everyone competes for their country, aiming to give their best. So, it will continue to be that way. However, given the current circumstances, things won't be the same."

BCCI may adopt Olympic sports going forward

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

IN what could be a first, the Indian cricket (BCCI) board might start providing continuous support for shaping up Indian athletes across a spectrum of Olympic disciplines. This discussion apparently transpired during a meeting between the sports ministry and over 50 corporate houses on Thursday. The Indian cricket board (BCCI), represented by Rajeev Shukla, has shown an interest to join hands with the sports ministry to promote or adopt a couple Olympic disciplines. According to sports ministry sources, the BCCI is keen on providing whatever help they can extend. The help is likely to include monetary benefits to two or three Olympic disciplines. Earlier, the BCCI had given money to the National Sports Development Fund or to Olympics medalists but if this transpires, the world's richest cricket body might extend long-term support to Olympic disciplines. "The BCCI was keen and they are looking at ways to implement it," said an official.

Project OTC in focus

The meeting, chaired by sports minister Mansukh Mandaviya, discussed ways to establish state-of-the-art Olympic Training Centre for priority sports in the country. The idea is to bring all top (both Target Olympic Podium Scheme and other elite) athletes, coaches and budding athletes under one umbrella. The vision is to be inside the top-10 of the medals tally at the 2036 Olympic Games for which India has already started the bidding process. The age group under focus would be aligned to 2028–2036 Olympic cycles. The meeting was attended by minister of state (sports) Raksha Khadse, newly-appointed sports secretary Hari Ranjan Rao, joint secretary Shobhit Jain and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) TOPS, NS Johal.

According to a presentation made during the meeting, the objective would be to have a tripartite agreement between the government (sports ministry or state government), National Sports Federations and the corporate houses. This would ensure a dedicated flow of funds, effective management, accountability and transparency. The sports ministry had been envisioning this project for a while and could see fruition soon because they are looking at upgrading existing centres, whether owned by centre, state or private parties, instead of creating one. The dedicated institutional structure would focus on sports excellence. This in turn would help in "improving capacity and effectiveness of NSFs" and also collaborate with states. If some states are running any programme, the support can go to the state as well.

The sports ministry would provide policy support, infrastructure and public funding, while the corporate houses would fund and share managerial expertise. The governance and athlete management will be with the NSFs. Interestingly, the feeder line could be through Khelo India and National Games. The NSFs on the other hand would be helping in scouting and providing coaches. Apart from these, talent identification can be done through national and international competitions as well. Each centre should be able to hold at least 200 athletes and if need be, the number can go up to 300.

OCI to represent India?

The sports ministry had reportedly discussed the possibility of allowing Overseas Citizens of India (OCI) to represent India at global events. There have been requests from All India Football Federation to allow them to include OCIs in the Indian team. It needs to be seen if this can legally be implemented because of India's Citizenship Act that prohibits dual citizenship.

WTC-bound SA IPL players to miss playoffs

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

WITH the Indian Premier League set for resumption on Saturday, there's finally some clarity with respect to player movements and replacements to help teams in the business end of the season. There's now confirmation that several of the South African players will leave for the UK after May 25, the original date of the IPL final. This is to help them acclimatise to the conditions ahead of the World Test Championship (WTC) final against Australia from June 11. The Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) did lobby with Cricket South Africa (CSA) but the latter managed to convey why they needed all eight WTC-bound players in the UK before the end of the month.

With a few England players also leaving in order to feature in the ODIs against West Indies, teams have sought replacements. Franchises like Mumbai Indians, set to lose both Ryan Rickelton as well as Corbin Bosch ahead of the playoffs, are free to name replacements in the next few days.

Mendis to replace Buttler

For example, Gujarat Titans have named Kusal Mendis to replace Jos Buttler once the latter leaves in the last week of May. Punjab Kings have called up Kyle Jamieson to replace the injured Lockie Ferguson. Another Kiwi speedster, Will O'Rourke, will wear Lucknow Super Giants colours for the tearaway quick Mayank Yadav, who's set for another spell on the sidelines.

Kusal Mendis will join Gujarat Titans as Jos Buttler's replacement

Rain could disrupt IPL plans

However, there's still no clarity on whether Royal Challengers Bengaluru will have Josh Hazlewood for the last league games and, if they go that far, the playoffs. Speaking of Bengaluru, they restart proceedings at home against Kolkata Knight Riders. However, that match faces a significant rain threat. Not just that match but a series of games could be rain affected as peninsular India braces for a thunderstorm-laden next 2-3 weeks.

Meanwhile, Bengaluru received a shot in the arm as skipper Rajat Patidar was seen batting at nets before Saturday's tie. Patidar had suffered a finger injury during the game against Chennai Super Kings earlier. However, his availability for RCB's match against KKR depends on further medical evaluation.

How wrestlers' mischief turned Delhi localities into new hub

FIROZ MIRZA @Chennai

HARYANA is India's wrestling citadel. The state is considered a wrestling powerhouse with akharas (wrestling academies) in every nook and corner.

Out of eight Olympic medallists since 1952 in the sport so far, five were born in the state with only the first medal winner KD Jadhav and double medallist Sushil Kumar born in Maharashtra and Delhi respectively. Such has been the dominance of Haryana in wrestling that even today, national teams in all age groups usually comprise more than 90 per cent wrestlers from the state.

That sway, however, seems to be diminishing, at least on paper. Going by birth records of up and coming wrestlers and even seniors to some extent, Begampur in Narela Zone and Suleman Nagar of Rohini Zone in New Delhi are emerging as the new wrestling nurseries. Both localities are in the North West part of the national capital and next to each other.

In the last few months, the Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) has identified around 400 wrestlers from various age groups, who have submitted their birth certificates issued by Narela Zone or Rohini Zone of the National Capital Territory of Delhi. Over 90 per cent of these grapplers hail from Haryana but their birth certificates show them as residents of Begampur or Suleman Nagar. Around 350 of them, on verification, have been found to be residents of Haryana and asked to compete in national tournaments representing their original state. "The move is in line with the government's draft policy to counter age fraud and WFI's domicile rules and regulations," Sanjay Kumar Singh, WFI president, told this daily.

THE PROCESS

- Most of birth certificates show these wrestlers are residents of Begampur and Suleman Nagar
- In most cases, wrestlers got birth certificates issued in 2020 or after, several years after the birth
- The move allegedly aimed at age fraud or changing domicile
- Around 350 wrestlers issued birth certificates by Narela and Rohini Zone of New Delhi asked to move back to Haryana

Earlier, the federation had made it mandatory for wrestlers to submit their Aadhaar cards to participate in the national tournaments. It was aimed at curbing age fraud and preventing inter-state exodus of wrestlers using forged domicile. In 2020, the federation adopted more stringent measures to make sure a wrestler from a particular state does not represent any other state.

"It has been seen frequently that Haryana wrestlers obtain birth certificates from Delhi to make themselves eligible to play for Delhi in the national tournaments. With competition in Haryana intense, wrestlers, who know they cannot find a place in the state squads, move to Delhi," a WFI official in the know of things, told this daily. In the last few days, the federation has scanned more than hundreds of birth certificates submitted by wrestlers and found that more than 50 per cent of them were issued by Narela and Rohini Zone. This daily is also in possession of at least 40 birth certificates issued by either zone. "With every third birth certificate being issued by these zones, the WFI started asking for more documents like parents' Aadhaar cards, their voter IDs from the wrestlers in question. Most of these wrestlers got the birth certificates issued after 2020. Interestingly, in some cases, even parents have changed their permanent addresseses. This made things complicated but the federation demanded them to produce old Aadhaar cards or voter IDs which eventually unravelled the mystery. Such a move is unfair to original Delhi wrestlers as such mass exodus increases the competition, thus depriving the athletes from the national capital a chance to compete in the national level tournaments," added the source. Singh said the process will continue in months to come as the WFI wants to set an example by putting an end to such malpractice.

Real Madrid snatch maximum points with late goal

AGENCIES @Madrid

REAL Madrid snatched a last-gasp 2-1 win over Real Mallorca on Wednesday in La Liga to delay Barcelona's title celebrations.

Los Blancos cut the gap on the Catalan giants to four points. Barcelona were due to take on Espanyol on Thursday, where they had the chance to wrap up the title with a victory. Trailing for much of the game after Martin Valjent's 11th-minute opener, two second-half goals for Madrid ensured their arch-rivals did not claim their 28th La Liga title on the night. Madrid needed to win to deny Barca and Kylian Mbappe's equaliser and Jacobo Ramon's 95th-minute strike allowed them to do just that.

Real Madrid's Jacobo Ramon (L) celebrates after scoring the second goal against Real Mallorca at the Santiago Bernabeu Stadium in Madrid, on Wednesday | AP

Los Blancos' defeat by Barcelona on Sunday in the Clasico left the Catalans on the brink of the title but Carlo Ancelotti's side showed fighting spirit in the final stages against Mallorca. "The team played very well, it fought a lot, played with a lot of intensity and it was a totally deserved victory," said Ancelotti. "We are happy because we want to finish the season well and this game didn't start well but afterwards we did very well in all senses." Madrid coach Ancelotti is departing to take charge of the Brazilian national team at the end of a disappointing season in the Spanish capital, and has two games left in his post.

The Italian's Madrid side, riddled with injury problems, were without Vinicius Junior and Rodrygo Goes among other star names as Mallorca visited the Santiago Bernabeu.

The islanders, ninth, are hoping for European football for the first time since 2004 and put up a strong performance.

Madrid's 18-year-old striker Endrick, whom Ancelotti may call up for Brazil in the future, came close early on but Leo Roman tipped his effort away.

Indian True Wireless Stereo (TWS) consumers are evolving, prioritizing value and features over a strictly price-driven mindset. Users expect a rich experience, low-latency performance, and reliable battery life, as per an expert

TWS MARKET GROWS 4% IN 1ST QTR 2025

AMID PREMIUMISATION TREND

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

INDIA'S True Wireless Stereo (TWS) market, which includes Bluetooth audio devices like earbuds and speakers, saw a 4% year-on-year (YoY) growth in shipments in the first quarter of 2025, according to a report by Counterpoint Research. The report highlights a growing consumer shift toward premiumisation, indicating that Indian consumers are increasingly seeking high-end features and enhanced audio experiences.

The premium segment—devices priced above ₹5,000—grew more than 1.4 times in Q1 2025, reflecting evolving consumer preferences. Brands are responding by refreshing their strategies and introducing early-stage AI features to stay competitive.

"Indian TWS consumers are evolving, prioritising value and features over a strictly price-driven mindset. Even in the budget segment, users expect a well-rounded experience—good sound quality, a comfortable fit, active noise cancellation, low-latency performance, and reliable battery life. This reflects a broader shift from price-first to value-first thinking," said Anshika Jain, senior research analyst at Counterpoint Research.

Brand Performance

In Q1 2025, Indian brands experienced a decline in market share as Chinese and global players gained ground. Chinese brands captured 15% of the market, a 31% YoY increase, led by strong performances from realme, OnePlus, and Xiaomi. Meanwhile, global brands doubled their market share YoY, driven by JBL, Apple, CMF, and Samsung.

Top Brands

- boAt: Despite an 11% YoY decline in shipments amid heightened competition in the budget segment, boAt maintained its market leadership for the 14th consecutive quarter.
- Boult Audio: Retained second place for the second year in a row, with a 46% YoY increase in market share to 17%. Its growth was driven by strong offline distribution, appealing branding, and a mix of feature-rich yet affordable products. Expansion into wearables also supported its brand recall.
- Noise: Ranked third with a 12% market share. Its growth stabilised at 5% YoY due to market saturation and intensified competition. The brand is now focusing on premium offerings, exemplified by its collaboration with Bose.
- Realme: Held a 6% market share and remained among the top five brands. Its value-for-money TWS products continue to attract aspirational buyers in a value-driven market.
- OnePlus: Posted 30% YoY growth and secured fifth place, dominating the ₹3,000–5,000 price band. The brand diversified its portfolio and strengthened its position with budget-friendly, feature-rich models like the Nord Buds 2r.

Sales Channels

Online sales accounted for 76% of total TWS shipments in Q1 2025. Quick commerce platforms are also gaining traction, offering new avenues for rapid consumer adoption.

Nearly 60% of TWS devices sold in India were assembled locally. With rising demand for premium and AI-powered earbuds, manufacturers are expected to scale operations, enhance local component quality, and increase investment in R&D to sustain growth.

Make in India

The premium TWS market held a 4% share in Q1 2025, led by Apple, Noise, and Samsung. Urban consumers are increasingly drawn to advanced features like Hi-Res Audio and ANC. For the mass market, these features remain aspirational. The ₹5,000–10,000 price segment is emerging as a sweet spot, offering a balance of performance, brand trust, and aspirational value.

Adoption of AI & cloud to continue at rapid pace

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

WITH rapid digitalisation and increasing demand for artificial intelligence (AI) and cloud-based solutions, APAC's (Asia Pacific) software market will continue to see expansion this year and Forrester expects software spending to surge by 10.4% with cloud-native development taking centre stage as businesses migrate operations to the cloud. The research & advisory firm estimates that spending on technology (software, services, communications equipment, tech outsourcing and hardware maintenance, and computer equipment) in Asia Pacific will grow by 6.5% in US dollar terms in 2025.

It says the highest tech spending growth in the Asia Pacific region in 2025 will be in India (11%), followed by Vietnam (10%), and the Philippines (9.4%).

In India, the technology sector has entered 2025 on a wave of momentum, fuelled by strong enterprise investment, the government's push for digitalisation, and a surge in venture capital, it stated.

"India's technology landscape is entering an unprecedented phase of growth and innovation," said Ashutosh Sharma, vice-president and research director at Forrester. "The rapid adoption of emerging technologies like generative AI will not only enhance productivity but also position India as a global leader in AI and tech talent," Sharma said.

However, navigating workforce upskilling, regulatory frameworks, and potential tariff implications will be critical to harnessing AI-driven opportunities, he added.

According to Forrester's Asia Pacific Tech Market Forecast, 2024 To 2028, the software market is set to grow 10.4% in 2025, with AI and cloud services dominating demand. It also pointed out that APAC's tech industry in 2024 faced a wave of government interventions aimed at shaping the development and use of AI. In March, India's Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology issued an advisory requiring platforms and intermediaries to ensure that AI models do not facilitate unlawful content. In May, Singapore introduced the Model AI Governance Framework for Generative AI to promote responsible AI development. China focused on domestic innovation in AI and semiconductors, driven by national security .concerns and competition with the US. Australia increased its investment in technology and policy development, allocating more than $2.8 billion to this over the next four years. It said these varying approaches reflected diverse priorities of governments.
